Dear Alice,

You really want a whole page, huh? Well, I guess I can try and do it. It really has been swell knowing you. We have had a terrific time together especially these last three years, no, especially since (is) that wonderful Sunday in September at Colorado Springs when you met — — — Chester!!!! We had even a better time since you met him. Talking about his muscles, build, broken nose, left guard, the things you said like, "What'll I do now?" and when (you) he said, "I call 'em sit guards!!" I know you'll never forget any of the times we've had and I know you'll never forget Chester — Boy, I sure won't. I hope you always stay the sweet kid you are now.

Congratulations on being one of the 15 in the "Miss Young America in Denver" contest and also on passing Algebra.

I hope I see you next year in Nurses training at St. Joe. Maybe you will get the privilege of fixing Chester's broken nose!!

Love,

Bernie

Foreword

The 1955 yearbook presents a faithful transcript in words and pictures of a year at St. Francis de Sales high school. In the future when you relive your years at St. Francis we want you to remember that Mary was a vital part of your everyday life. For that reason the '55 Fransalian theme is Our Lady and Our Life.

Dedication

To Sister Mary Thomasine, principal of St. Francis de Sales high school for six years, we dedicate this annual — to Sister who has been an important influence in our lives, who has given us an example of noble living and high ideals. Beyond acknowledgment and beyond praise are the many favors she has extended to us during our years at St. Francis. May our lives be well-lived and our thoughts and prayers in the years ahead be compensation for her efforts in our behalf.

To Sister Thomasine then with sincerest thanks we offer this issue of the Fransalian.

Faculty

The open book and lamp symbolize wisdom. Designating eternal Wisdom, Who is the beginning and end of all, are the ALPHA and OMEGA, the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. It is from eternal Wisdom that Our Lady learned, and it is there the faculty urges us to turn for true understanding.

Mother of Divine Grace...

...Our Lady and Our Life

Junior Class

The urn symbolizes Mary's soul which is "full of grace." The waters streaming from the vessel show that she is a never-ending source of grace. This grace has its fountain-head in Christ represented by the first two letters of the Greek word for Christ, CHI and RHO.

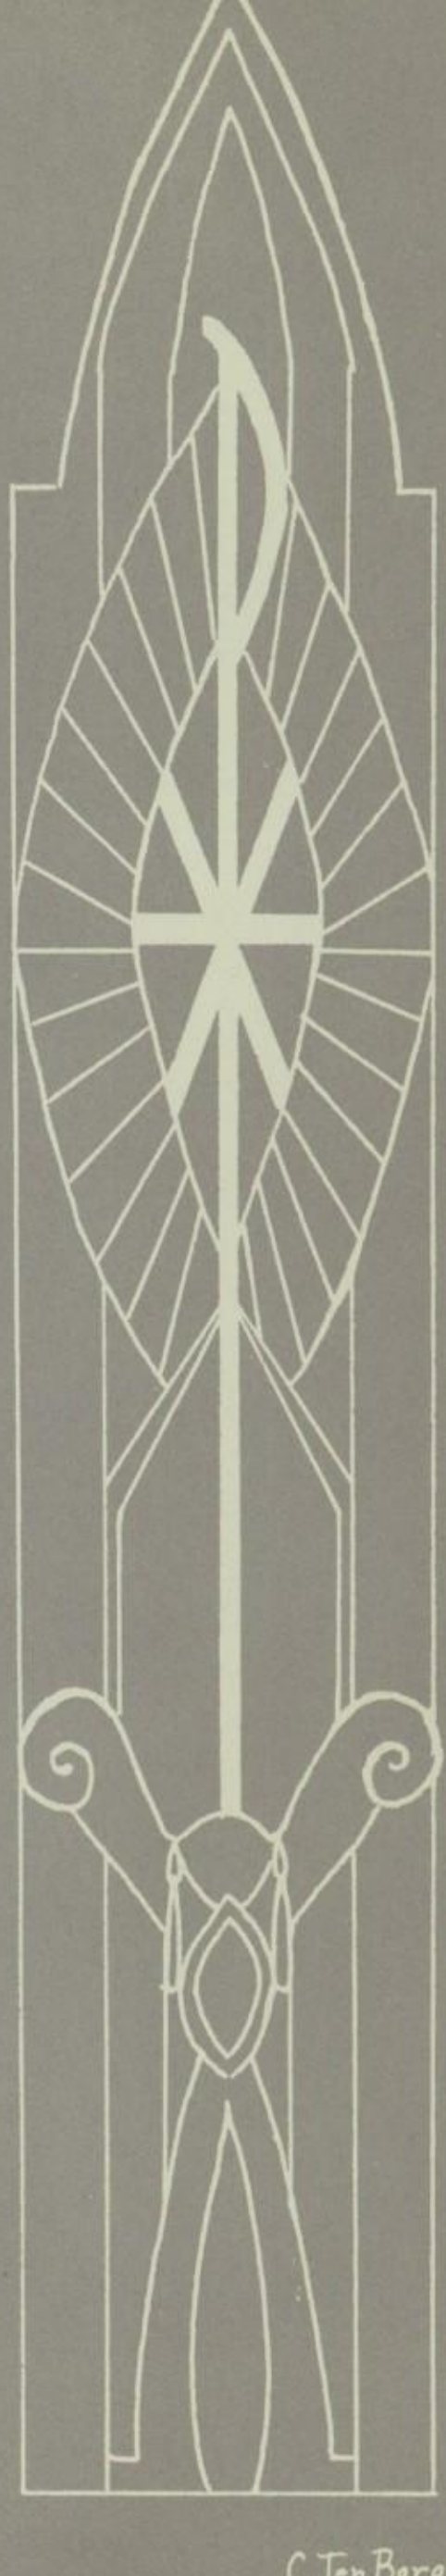
Seat of Wisdom . . .

. . . Our Lady and Our Life



Classes

The chair symbolizes Mary as a center or base from which Truth radiates. To "take God's point of view" is perfection of understanding and the goal presented to us in daily classes.

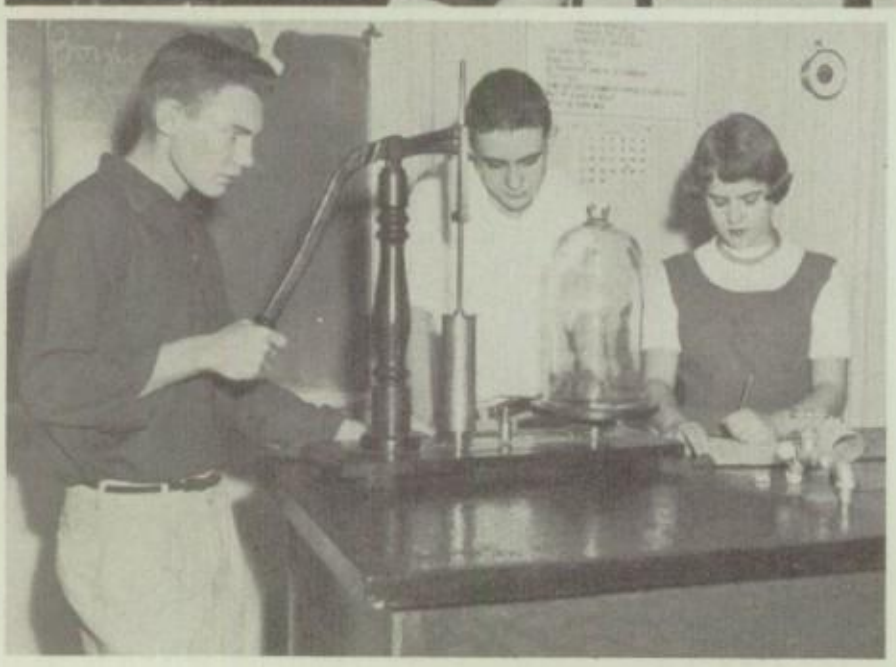
C. Ten Barge

SCIENCES

Shades of Benjamin Franklin. Tom Bordon shows Pat Lowe, Donald Alders and William Easton how to generate enough current to light this small bulb.

Sounds almost perfect. Paul Yeager demonstrates a homemade sounder and key to Geraldine Von Feldt and Marilyn Pence.

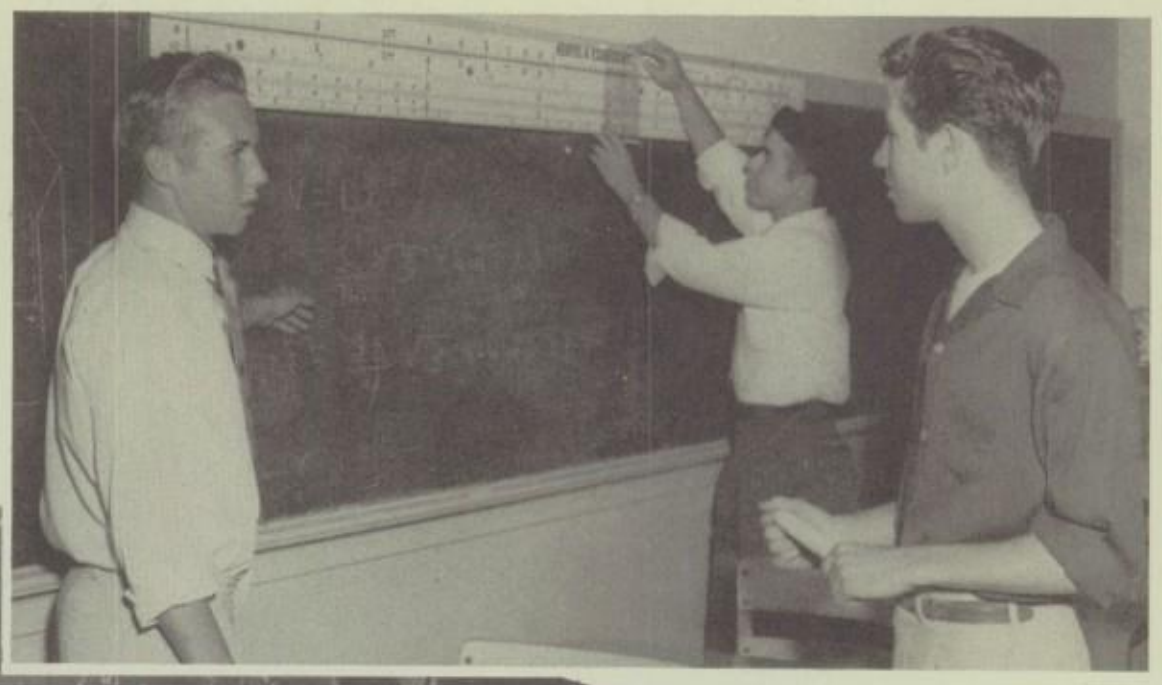
Not much bigger are they? Toni Micheletti, Mary Ellen Potter, Harry Puncec, Paula Hanson and Terry Dreiling watch the progress of their general science aquarium.



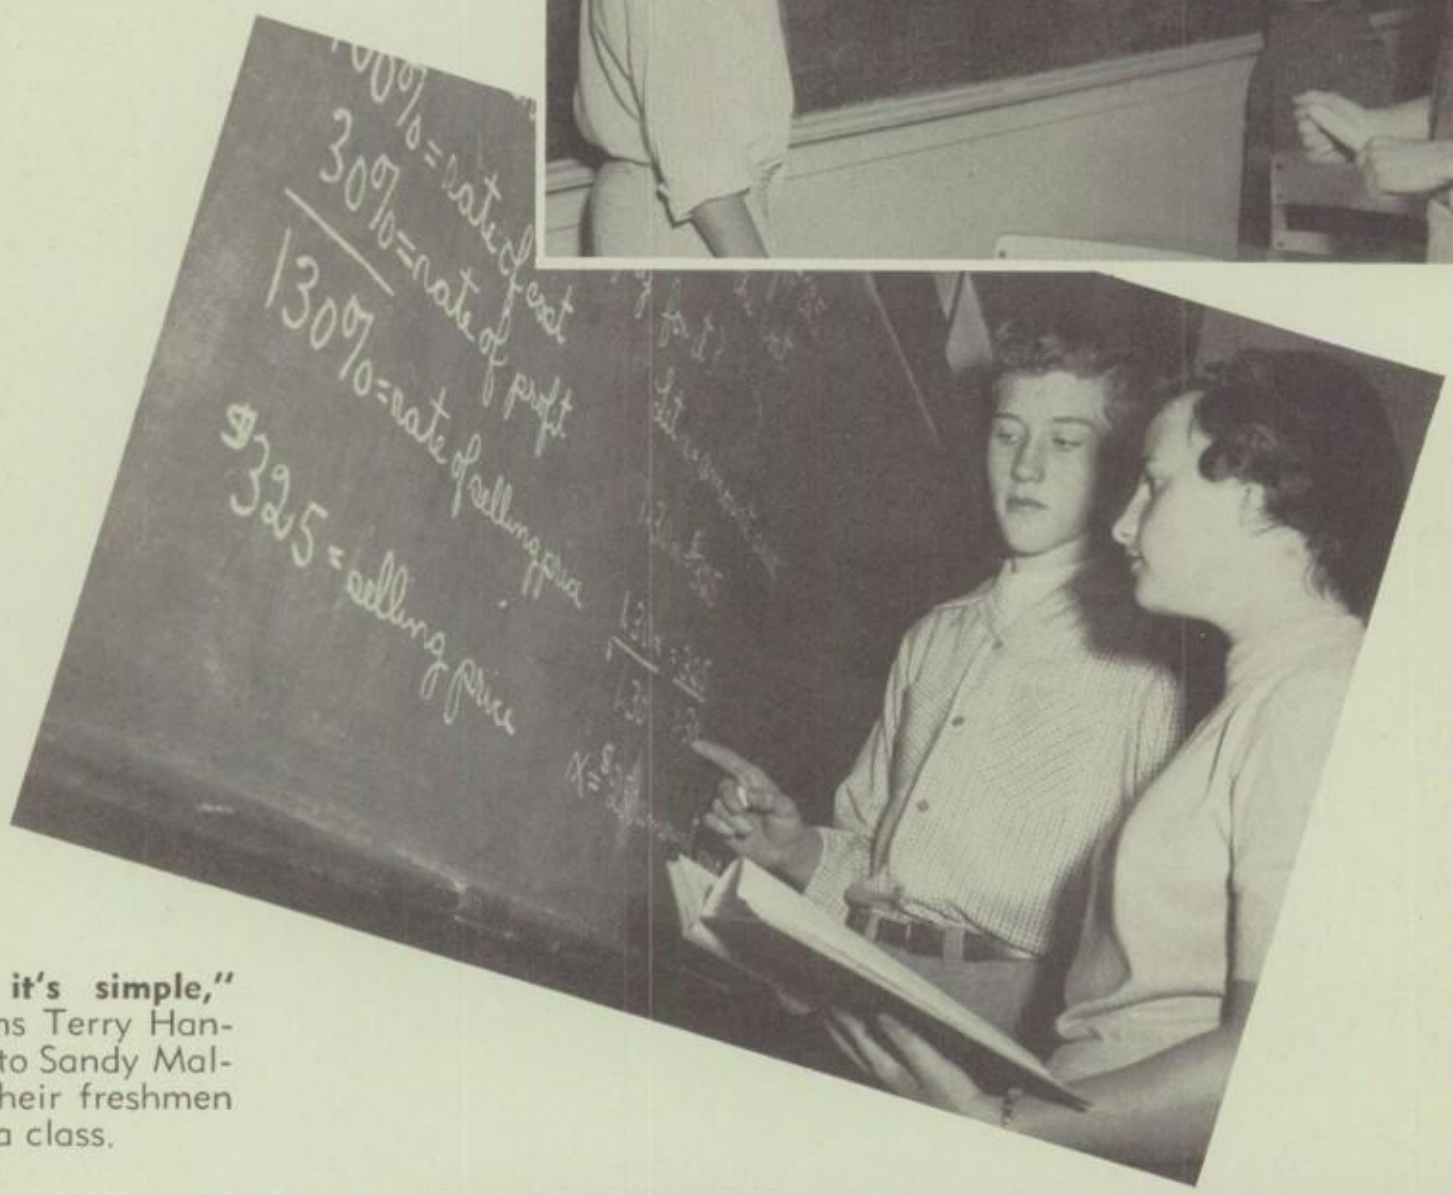
"Pump harder, Berry," say Danny O'Connor and Annita Phannenstiel as they watch an experiment in physics class.

"Is this the way you're supposed to do it?" ask Barbara Cabela, Dennis Clifford and Robert Greenwald.

MATHEMATICS



Smug and satisfied, James Caraghar smiles as Chuck Kirby and Bob Nau work on a trigonometry problem.

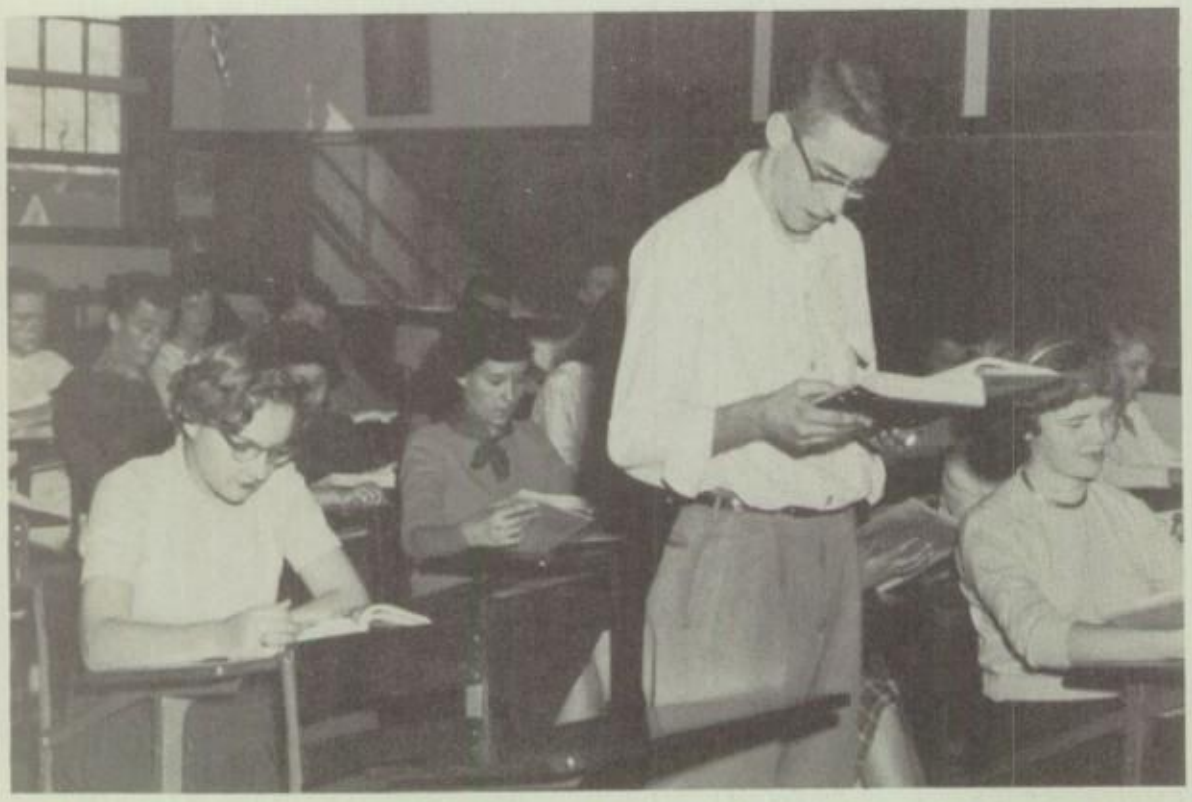


"See, it's simple," explains Terry Hannauer to Sandy Mally in their freshmen algebra class.

Is it geometry or something else that intrigues Dan Smith? Pat Fisher, Rosella Petrun, Virginia Schwindt, Patricia Keegan, and Agnes Jo Caskins seem interested in circles.

FINE ARTS

Must be the jokes. Patti Sue Benelli and Alice Casey seem to find something funny in the news as Patricia Nicolai, Nancy Peck and Donna Kelly study seriously with the rest of the class.

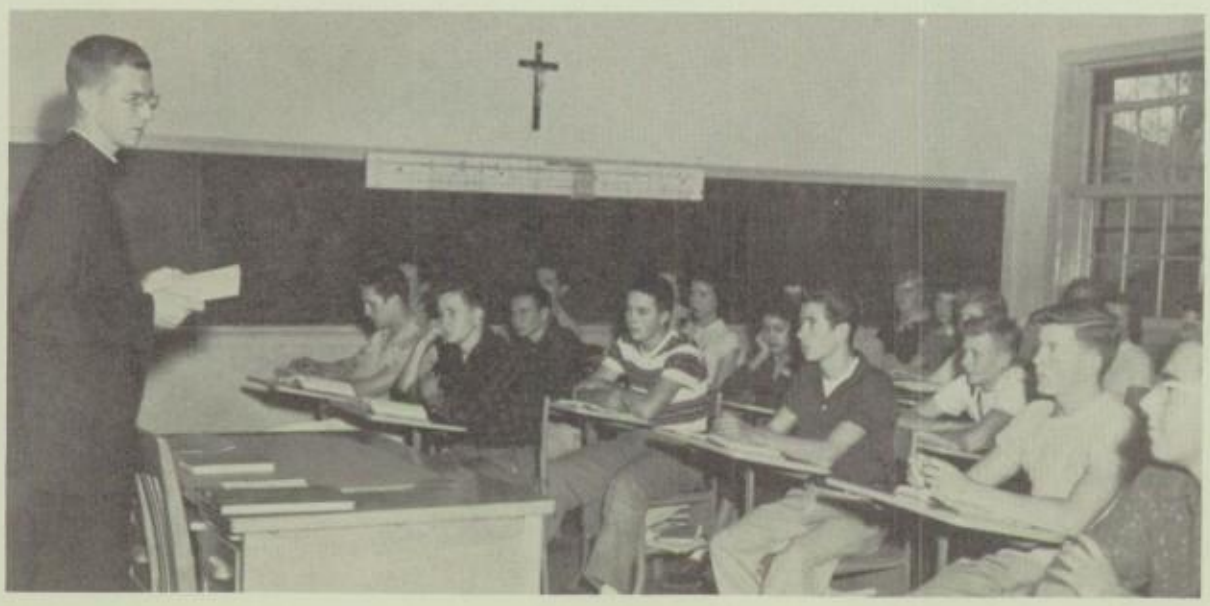


Far away places with strange sounding names perplex Catherine Ten Barge, Mary Kay Kottenstette and the rest of the class as Andrew Dickson reads in history class.

"Wish we were there," sighs Rosetta Wolf as she points out New York to Peggy Partsch and Jackie Pfannenstiel.

That's Thirty, Linda Ackley reporting—with help from Patricia Herman, Roy Dougherty and Michael Gaimara.

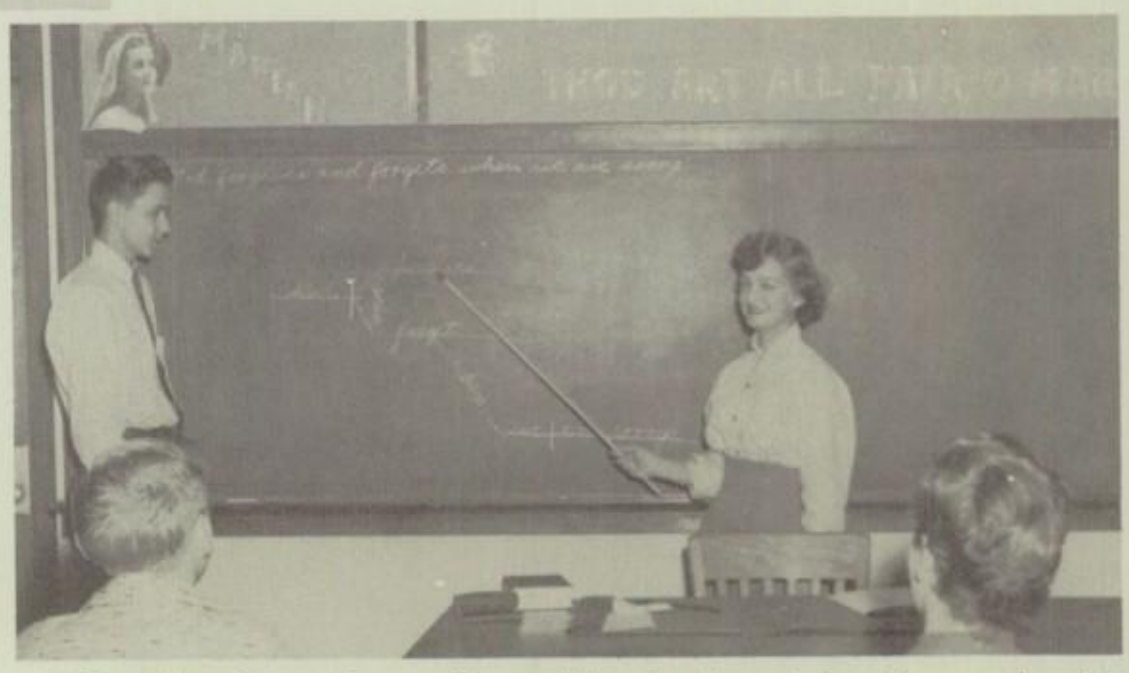
Is it this peaceful every day in civics class or only when a show is in progress?



"These are the marks you got on that last test," says Father Aylward as everyone's ears prick up, especially those of Ronald Burke, Allen Grand and James Caraghar.

"Come what come may," senior English students will study Macbeth.

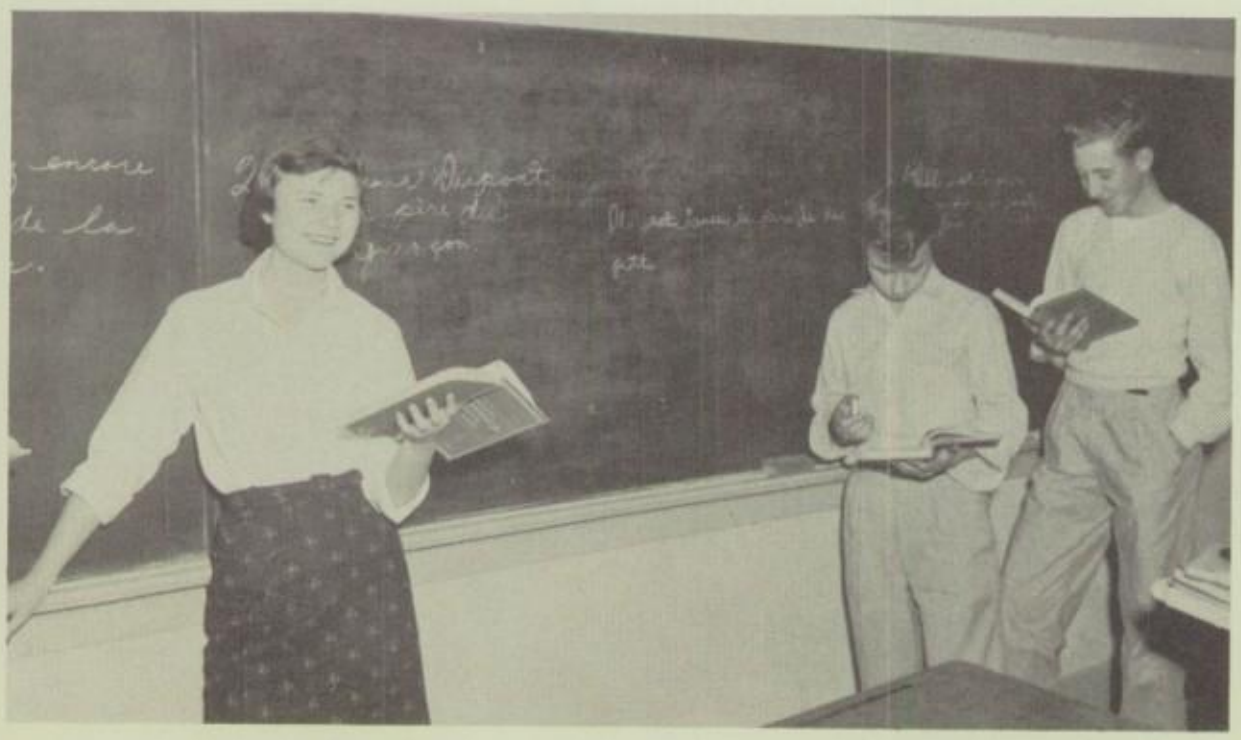
A school office worker, Donna McNamara, sneaks in some shorthand homework during a slack period.



Teacher for a day — Susan Urquhart explains the mechanics of diagraming to Ronald Shepard and the class.

Not camera shy. Mary Figlino seems more interested in the camera than in her freshmen Latin class.

"Something to be proud of!" smiles Monsignor Smith as he congratulates Pat Schmitz and Margaret Hilbert on their good work in winning the Latin trophy.



"Je parle francais en peu," say Norma Von Feldt, Thomas McCabe, and William Trumble.

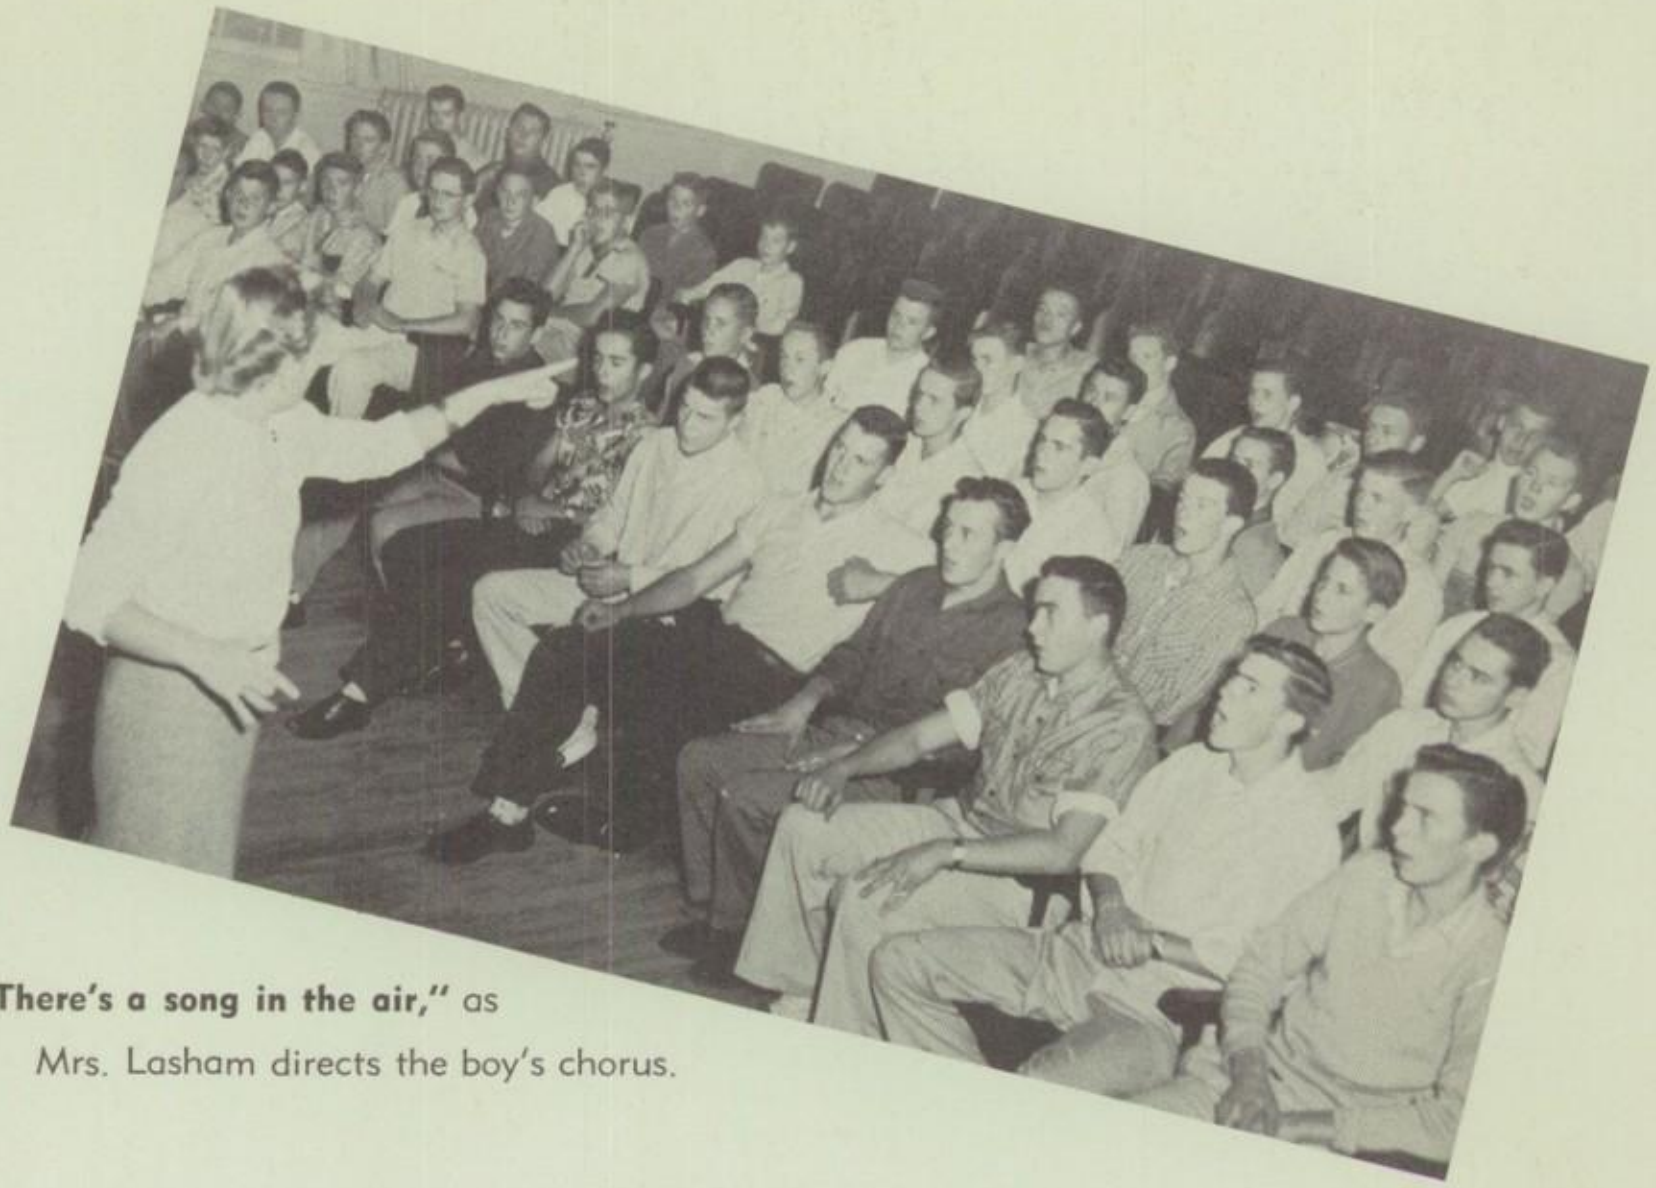
Quiet! Geniuses at work! Kevin Traynor and Catherine Ten Barge work on their papier mache animals while Dave Carragher pastes his mask together.

ART

"It's a present for Mom," explains Lou Anne Bettinger to Leland Strahl, John Yedo and Dorothy Thompson.

Hanging their portraits are Don Fruh, Dave Carragher, Harold Kiley and Joe Bagan as Miss Herold supervises.

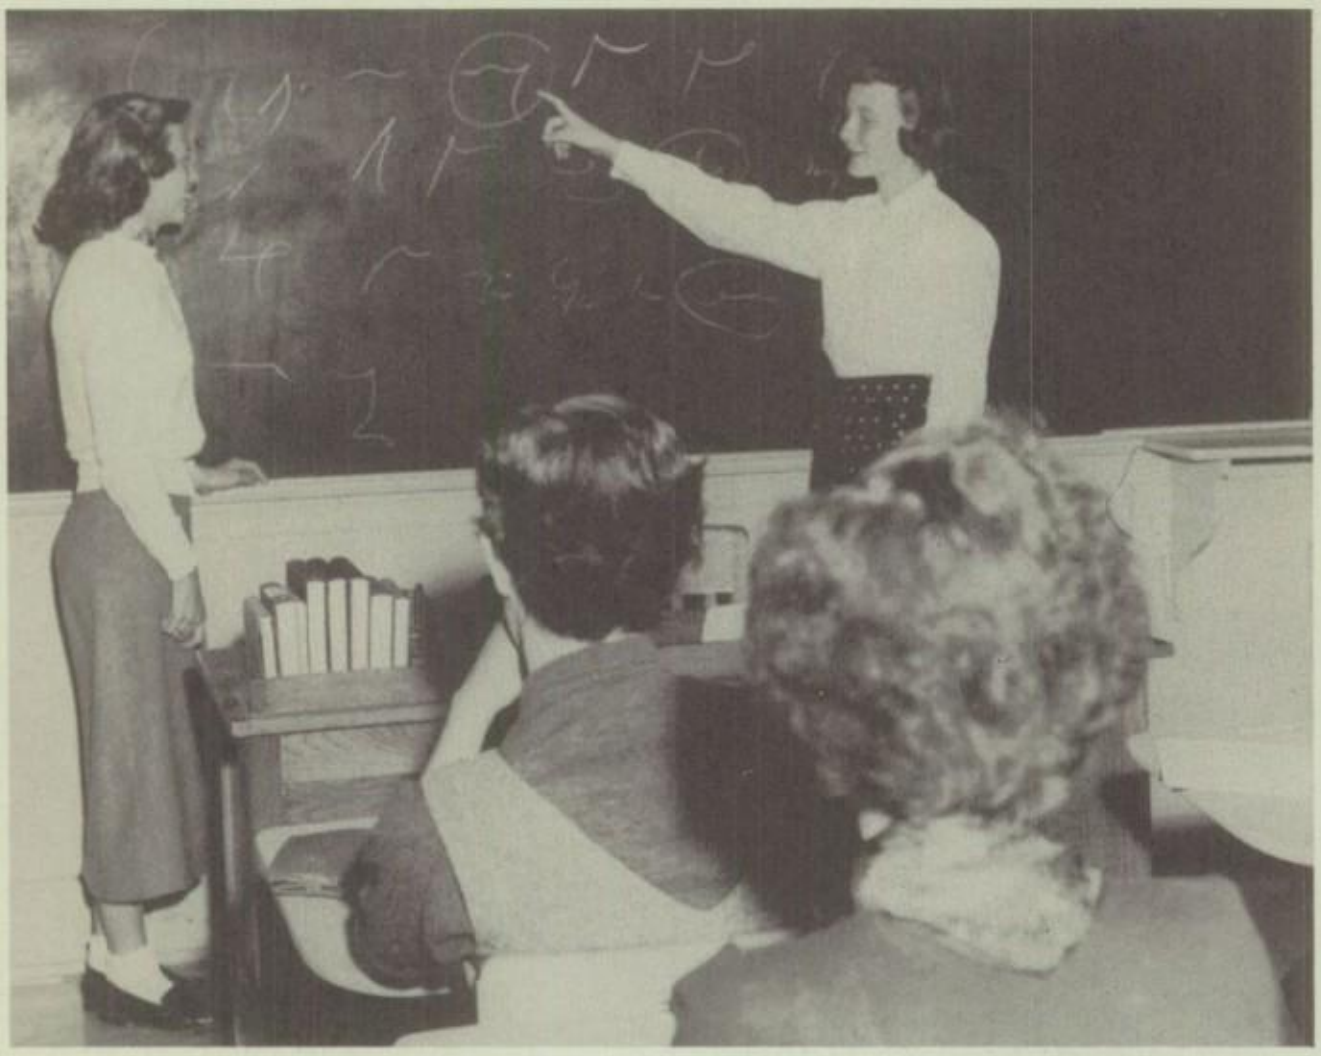
MUSIC



"There's a song in the air," as Mrs. Lasham directs the boy's chorus.

Study was never like this . . . could it have been posed? Norma Artzer, Mary Patania, Celia Jacquez and Nancy Kiehm seem to think so.

COMMERCIAL

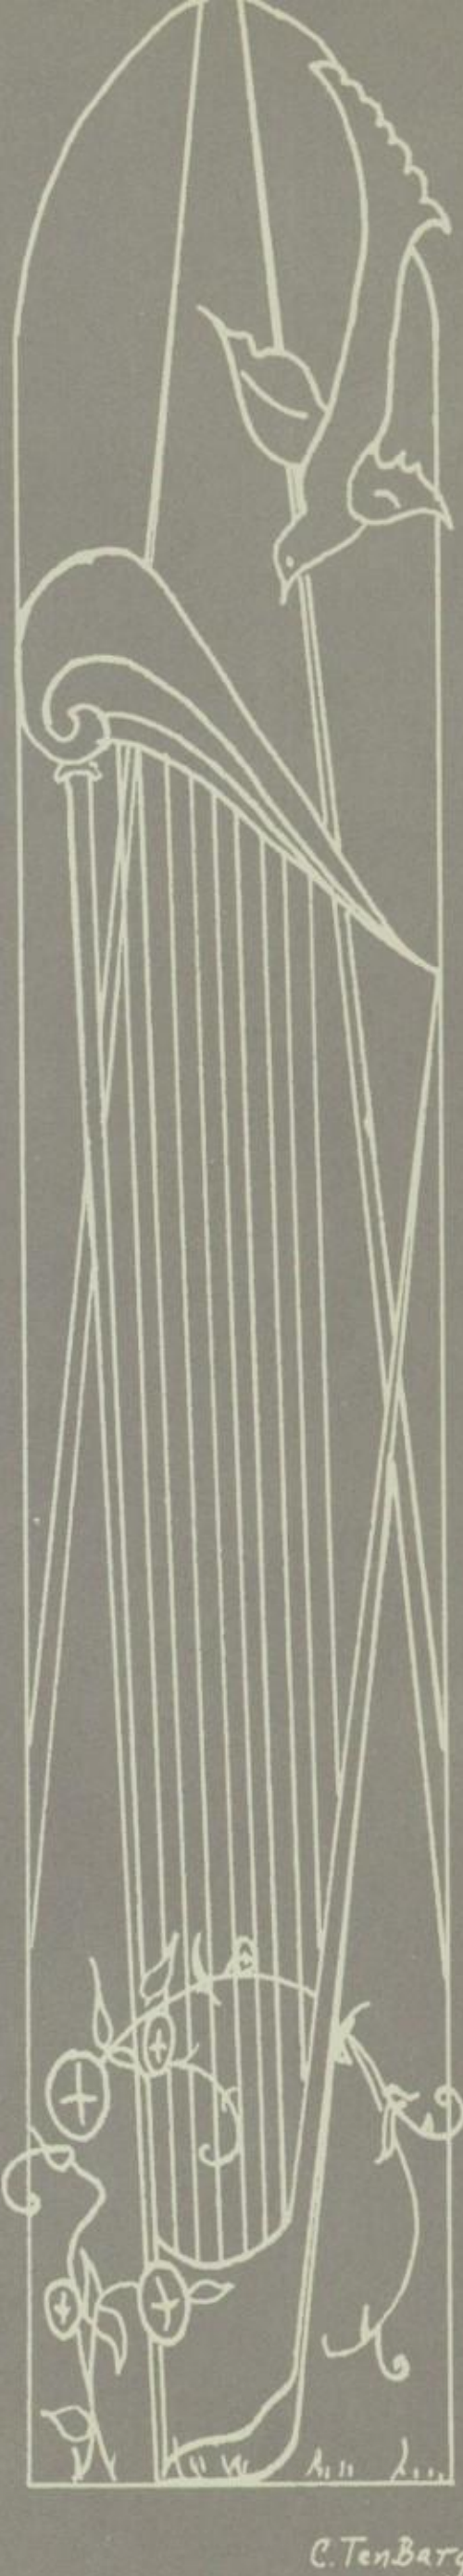


"I could have sworn it said 'Dear Sir,' " jokes Mary Ellen Carroll to Donna McNamara.

"Now is the time for all good men . . ." type the junior boys and girls.

Cause of Our Joy . . .

. . . Our Lady and Our Life



Activities

The musical instrument symbolizes the joy which is our Christian heritage; the dove represents the Holy Spirit. Joy is a fruit of the Holy Spirit, a virtue which is the effect of charity or love. Mary possessed joy in its fullness; she wants us in all our activities to reflect this joy also.

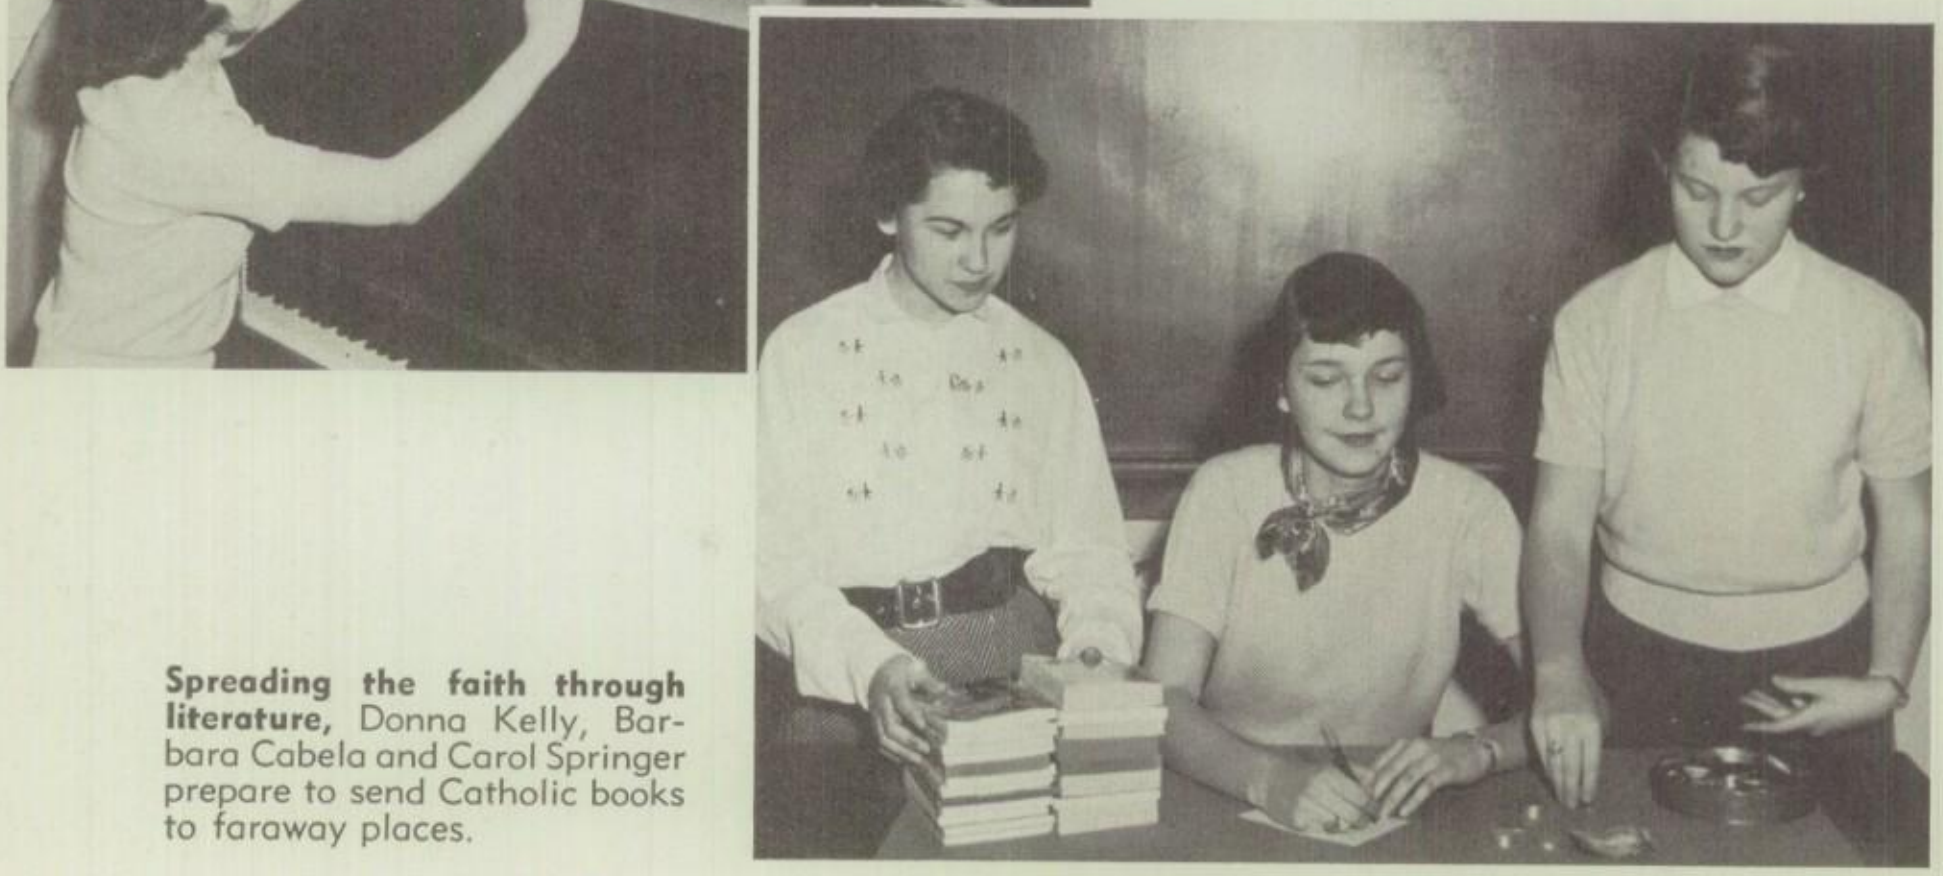
Cognoscetis Veritatem

You Shall Know the Truth

"That all may know the Saviour of the world" is the cause for which CSMC officers Judy Mitchell, secretary; Joan Kottenstette, vice president; Don Burke, president; and Rosetta Wolf, treasurer, are working.

"Who will win the coveted cup," wonder Agnes Jo Caskins, Pat Carraher and Marietta Angerer as they count stamps.

"There's No Business Like Show Business," smiles Christine Leman as she, Carol Kadell, Mary Ann Urquhart, Bernice Morgan and Joan McCarthy work on the talent show.



Spreading the faith through literature, Donna Kelly, Barbara Cabela and Carol Springer prepare to send Catholic books to faraway places.

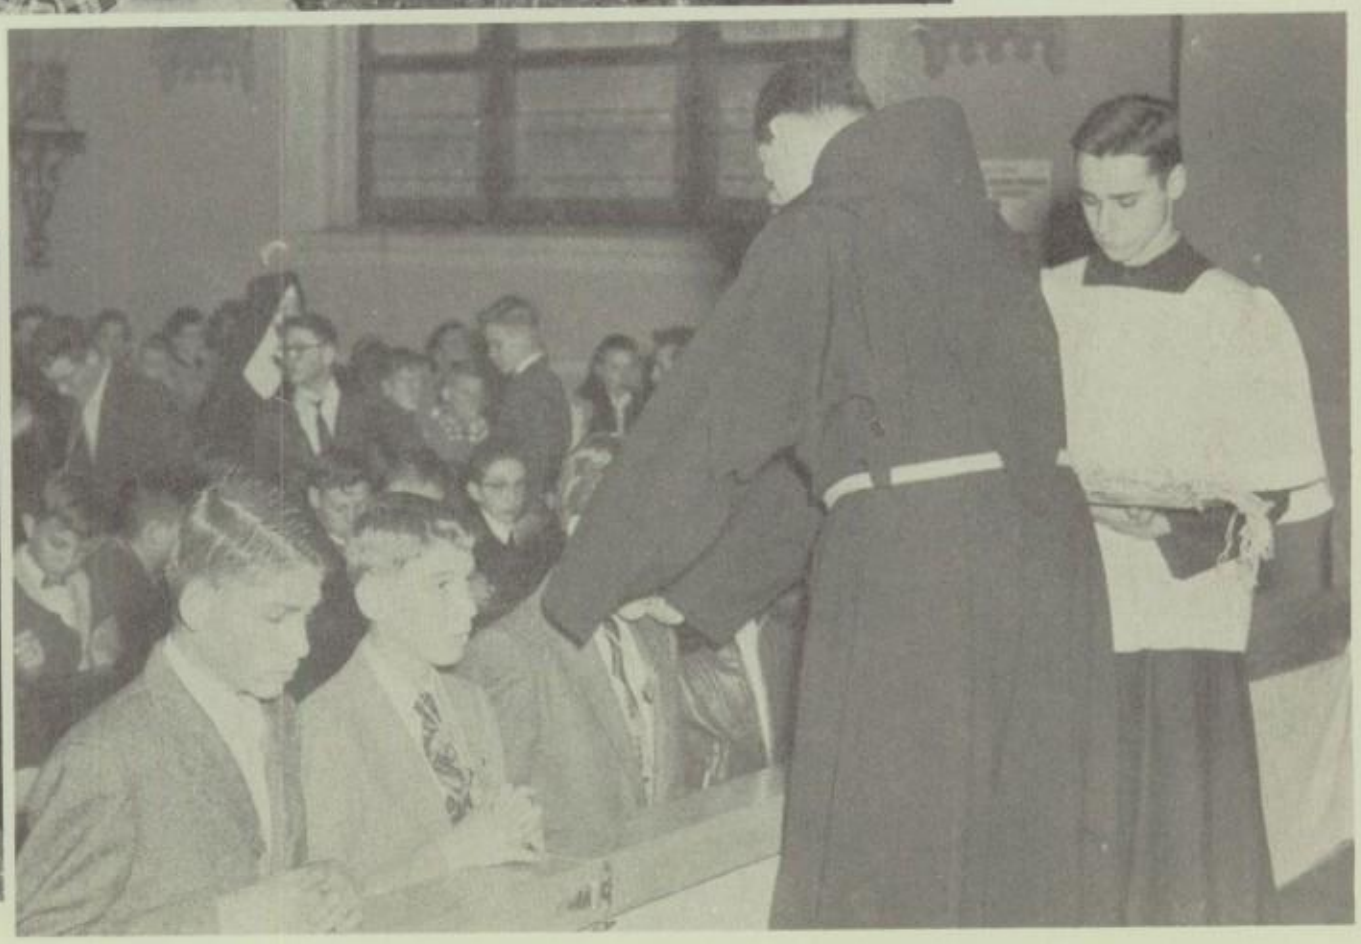
"'Neath the Queen's White and Blue"

"That talk should interest a lot of students in the unit system," agree Dennis Clifford, secretary; Richard Switzer, treasurer; Ronald Burke, vice prefect; and Phyllis Sticksel, prefect, to Father McGloin, S.J. of Regis high school.

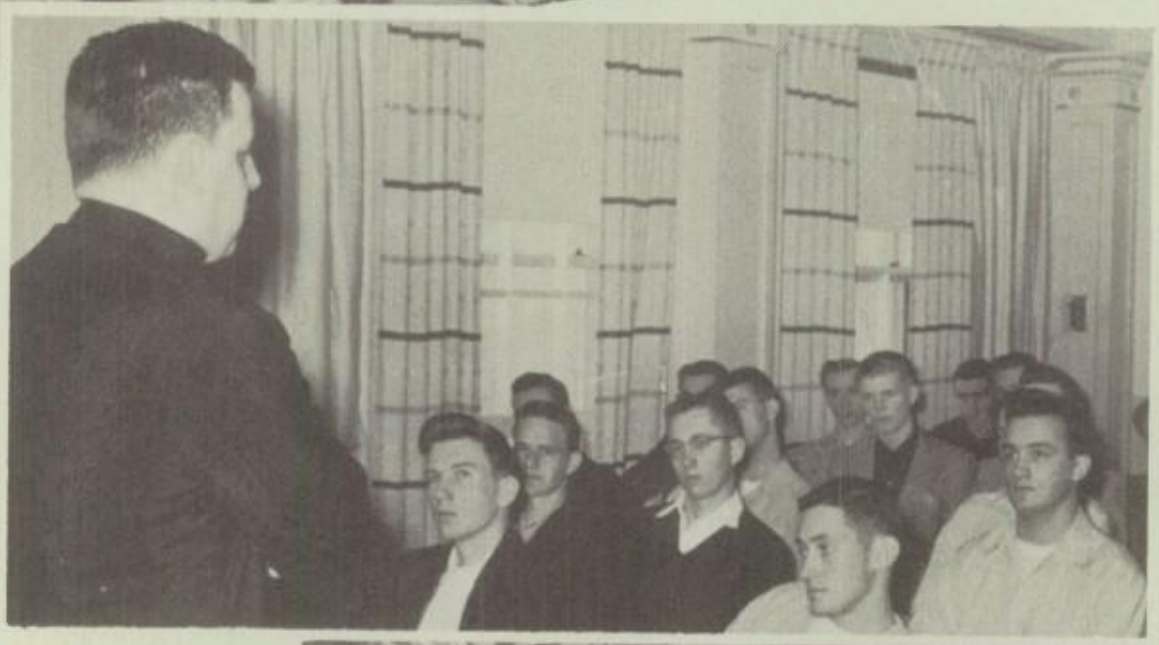
Christmas came to St. Francis when Jim Kappel, Lois Mitchell, Phyllis Sticksel and Clarence Van Deren assembled the crib.

New recruits for Our Lady's army, Paul Yeager and Stanley Fulcher, receive Sodality medals from Father Demitrius O'Friel, O.F.M., as Myron Mossbrucker assists.

"Oh Mary, turn a mother's ear, and kindly our petitions hear," leads Phyllis Sticksel, Sodality prefect.



Ray Nalty looks for Don Pfannenstiel around Derrel Robben, Clarence Van Deren, Frank Zook, John Bagnall, Jerry Dobbs and Jack Dore.



In thoughtful silence senior boys listen to words of wisdom from Father Schwellenbach.

"Our cafeteria was never like this," says Carl O'Loughlin to Robert Greenwald.

"Seek ye first the things of the spirit," advises Father Schwellenbach, retreat master.

"Which spoon do I use now?" wonders Lola Fults as Bonnie Montreal, Joan Marshino and Mary Ellen Carroll grin at her problem.

A conference in the chapel affords time for serious thought to senior girls.

In a jovial mood, Sister Rose Daniel prepares to enjoy a delicious Broadmoor dinner with Sister Mary Peter and Monsignor Smith.

"And there's still four more courses to go," groans Bernice Morgan as Christine Leman and Donna McNamara enjoy their cream soup.

A salute to Queen Vera and her attendants, Lola Fults and Dolores Martinez, is given at a rally by the cheerleaders, Pep Club officers, flagbearers and band.

Homecoming

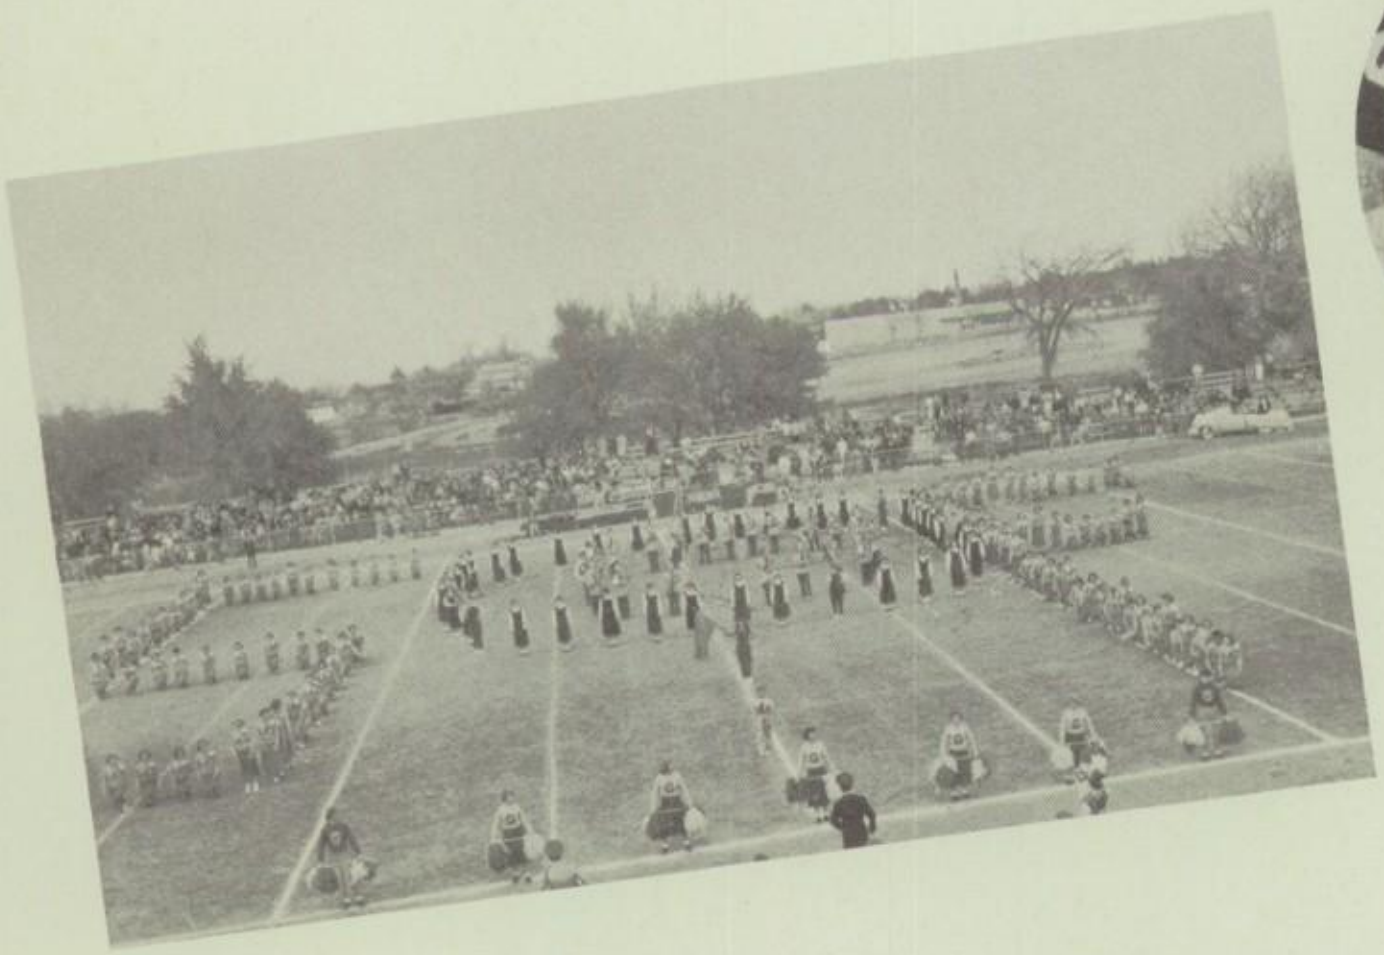
"Sweet and Lovely" are Queen Vera and her court. From the left: Lola Fultz, senior attendant, Clarence Van Deren, William McCabe, Dolores Martinez, junior attendant and Thomas Burke. Ronald McCarty escorted Lola Fults.

Monsignor Smith smiles his congratulations after crowning Vera Jacques queen of Homecoming.

CHEER LEADERS

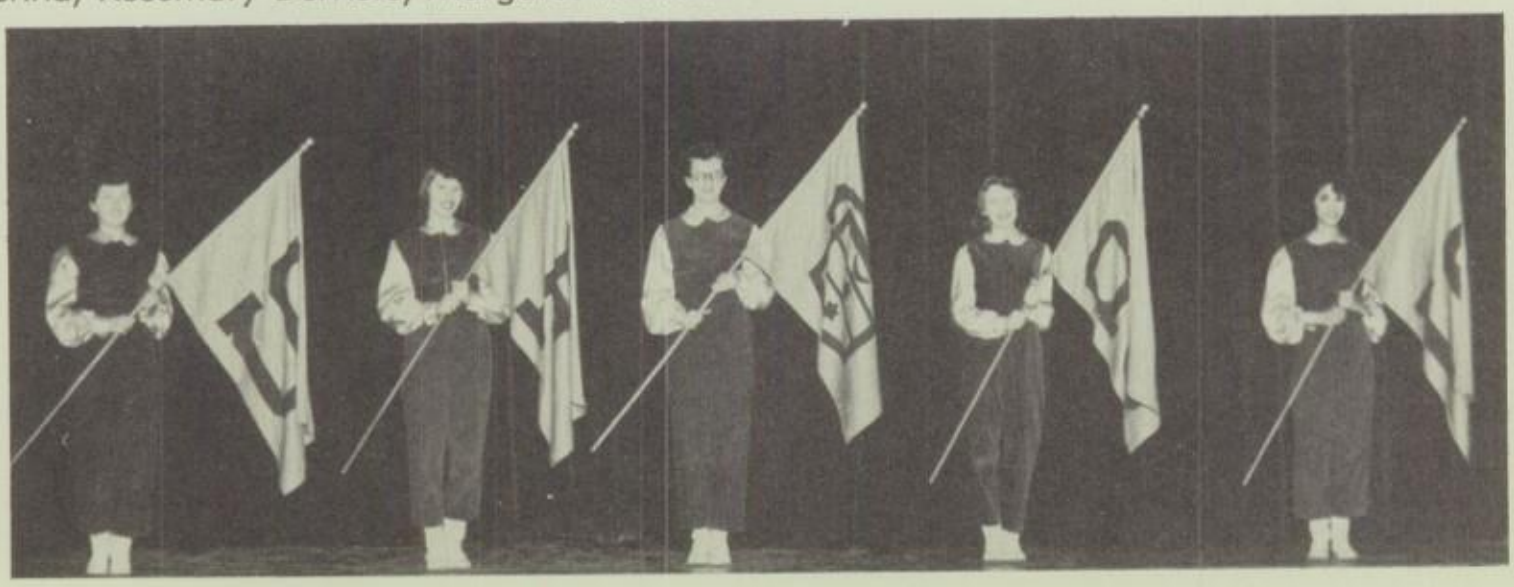
PEP CLUB OFFICERS

Working for better school spirit are Pep Club officers: Nancy Werthman, treasurer; Carol Springer, president; Frances Mooney, vice president; and Nancy Sorrels, secretary.



Spokes of spirit in the Pep Club wheel are cheerleaders: Mary Ellen Carroll, Peggy Guerin, Nancy Keihm, Margaret Hilbert, Frances Imhoff, Judy Zadra, and Carol Weir.

Proud to bear the blue and gold are flagbearers: Alice Breese, Neva Kerkman, Agnes Zehna, Rosemary DeMers, Margaret Ramos.



With all eyes turned toward a better student government the student council members Sherman Alsop, Thomas Reeves, Norman Silva, Paul Watson, Carol Graves, Joseph Stadler, Thomas Burke, Charles Leonard, Clarence Van Deren, Mary Kay Nelan, Raymond Lawlor, Robert Chirnside, Phyllis Sticksel, Jeanne Williams and Carol Springer plan their meetings.

Fransalian Leaders

"Any good suggestions this time?" asks Chuck Leonard, chairman, as Clarence Van Deren, vice chairman; Mary Kay Nelan, secretary; and Robert Chirnside, treasurer, look on.

"Seniors like to dance to jazz," agree Phyllis Sticksel, Raymond Lawlor, Carol Springer, Thomas Burke, and Jeanne Williams as they plan a Sunday get-together.

"Congratulations," smiles Chuck as he presents pins to Kathryn Urban and Andy Dickson, the newest members.

Monsignor Smith's Feast Day Dinner

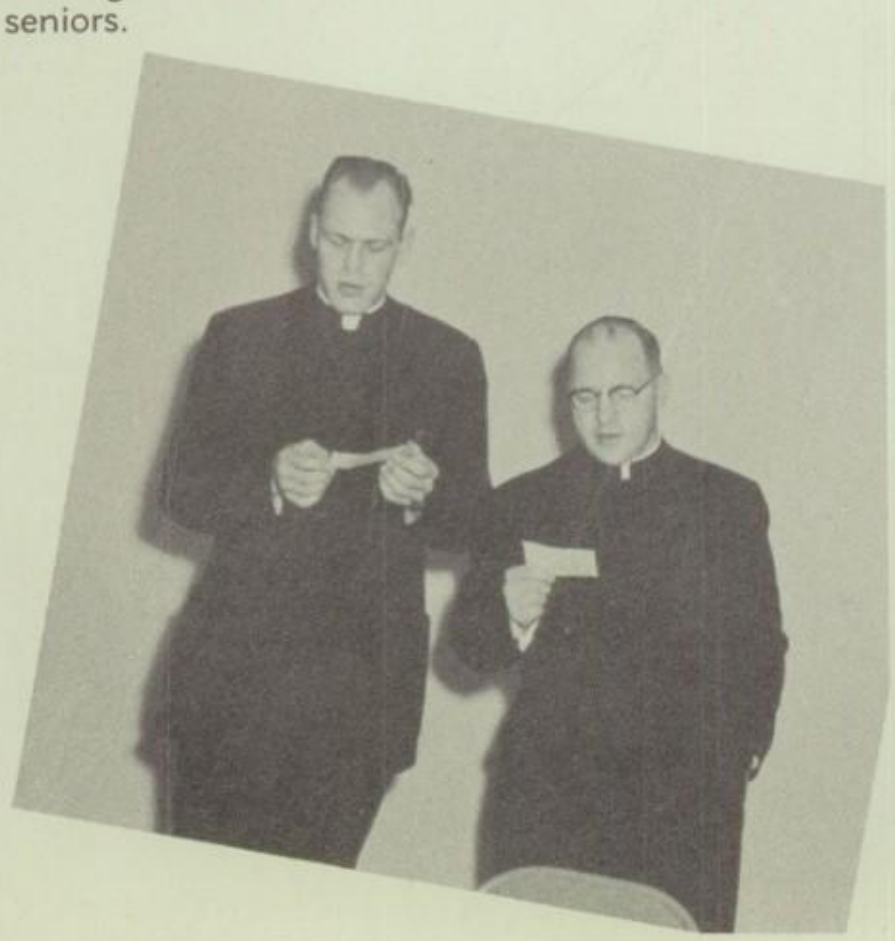
"Young man, do you have germs"? inquires Nora Jacques during her humorous declamation.

"Like Endymion, America is sleeping," Clarence Van Deren tells seniors in his prize-winning declamation.

It doesn't sound like Gregorian chant as Father Morfeld and Father Kekeisen sing a duet dedicated to Monsignor and the seniors.

"Happy Feast Day," wishes Dennis Clifford on behalf of the senior class as he presents Monsignor Smith with a black valise.



Barbara Cabella, Donna McNamara, Jackie Huffsmith and Josella Lubeck hard at work as the bell sounds at dismissal.

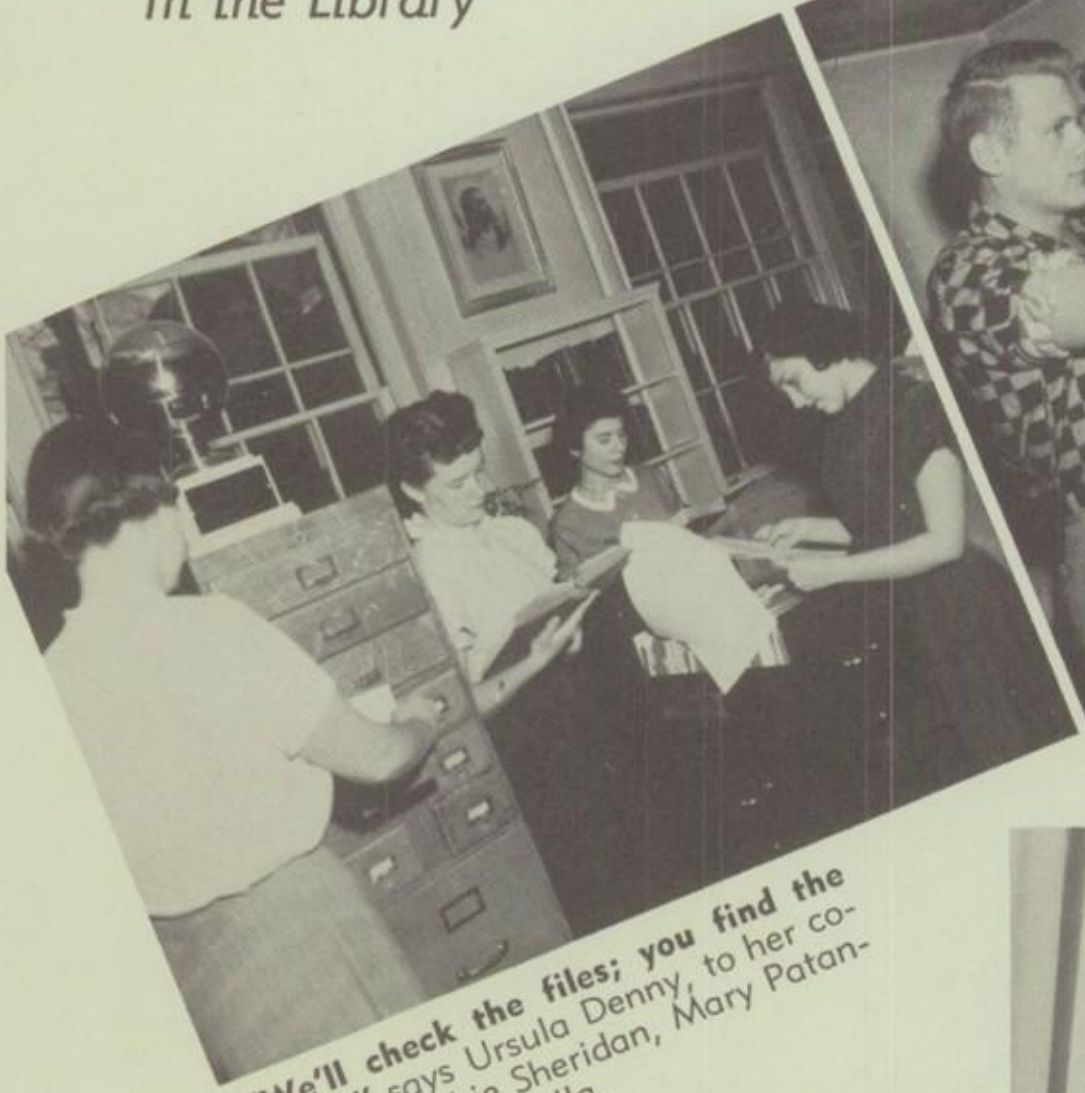
Office Staff

Checking the files for "bad people" are Pat Mittlestadt, Diane Mac-Gruder, Joni Marshino, and Rita Turelli.

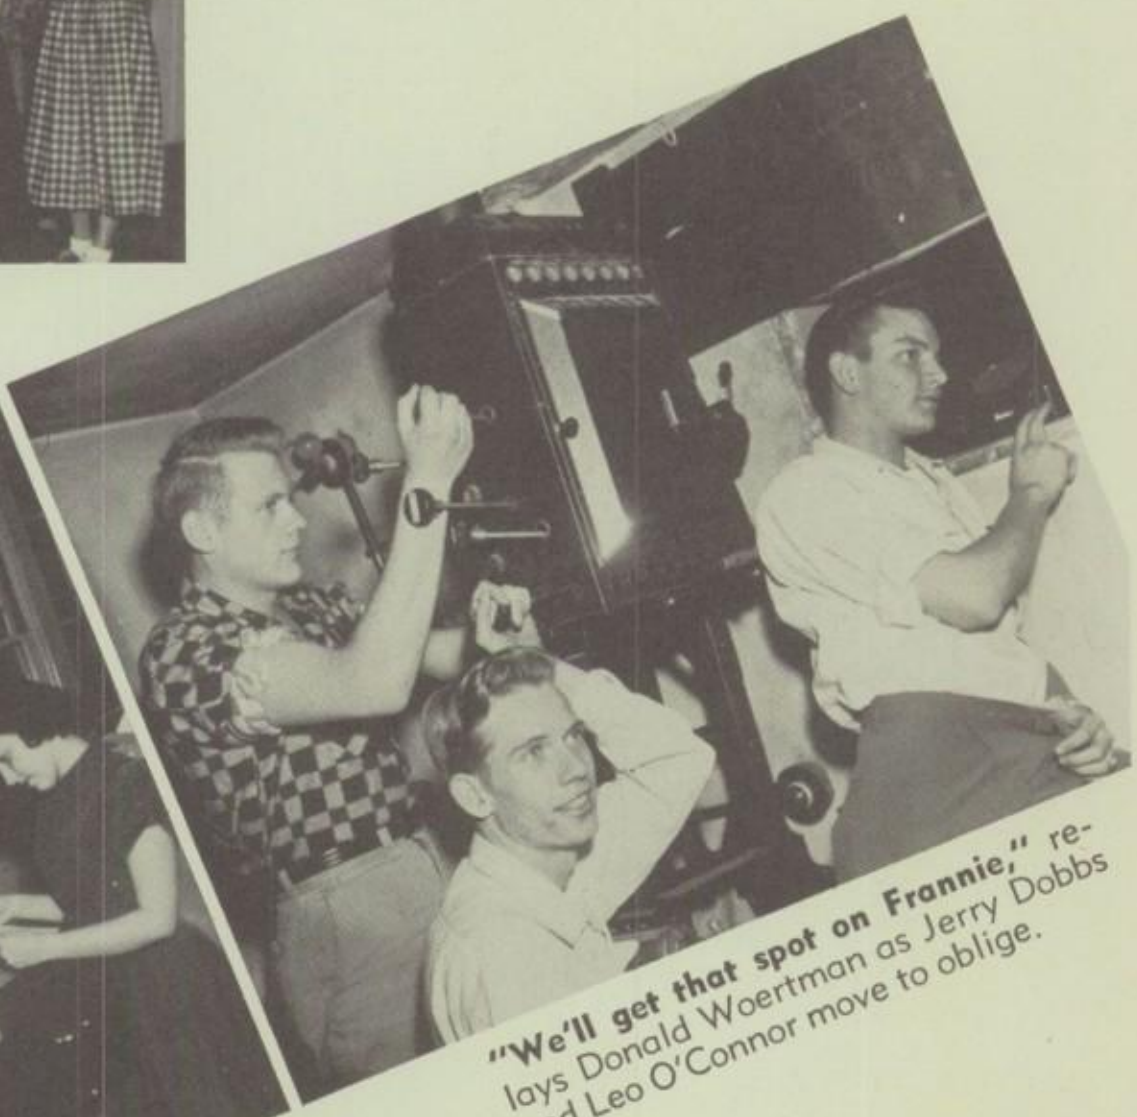
"And they all want to help me," sighs Gary Hart as librarians, Carol Taylor, Judy Hansen, Mary Kay Kottenstette, Pat Hynes, Geneva Pelzel, Shirley Lehnerz, Pat Fisher, Kathy Tagney, Pat Olsen, Betty Kastner, step up to aid him.

They Serve

In the Library



"We'll check the files; you find the books," says Ursula Denny, to her co-workers Jackie Sheridan, Mary Patania, and Betty DiPilla.



"We'll get that spot on Frannie," relays Donald Woertman as Jerry Dobbs and Leo O'Connor move to oblige.

Backstage

'Pull it now, they're ready on stage!" says Bill McLellan to Carl O'Loughlin as Ray Lawlor switches on the footlights.

Girls' Chorus

A combination of "Jingle Bells" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" marked the beginning of a successful year for the glee club. Under the capable direction of Jo Noakes Lasham the Gremlin singers added to the Christmas spirit with a program of carols and tableaus by the freshmen, the advanced girls' cantata, and mixed chorus. This group appeared on television programs, sang at hospitals, and various places of business. Between Christmas and Easter cantatas, the glee club works on arrangements for special Masses and spring festivals.

Boys' Chorus

Mixed Chorus

Seated: Vera Jacques, Rosemary DeMers, Frances Imhoff, Bernice Morgan, Raymond Lawlor, Mary Ellen Carroll, Myron Mossbrucker, Margaret Guerin, Betty Stromsoe.

Kathryn Urban editor of the Fransalian paper.

"Try a two column cut," suggests Nora Jacquez as she and page editors Andy Dickson, Mary Kay Nelan, Josella Lubeck and Tom Burke work on their layouts.

"Deadline is too close for comfort," agree Jacklyn Huffsmith and Pat Schmitz, typists for the newspaper.

"Will you deliver them on your bike?" asks Nancy Sorrels of Jim Kappel, Bob Chirnside and Frank Zook, members of business and circulation departments.

"They're not as easy as they look," says Donna McNamara as she, Joan Marshino and Peggy Fitz-patrick work on headlines.

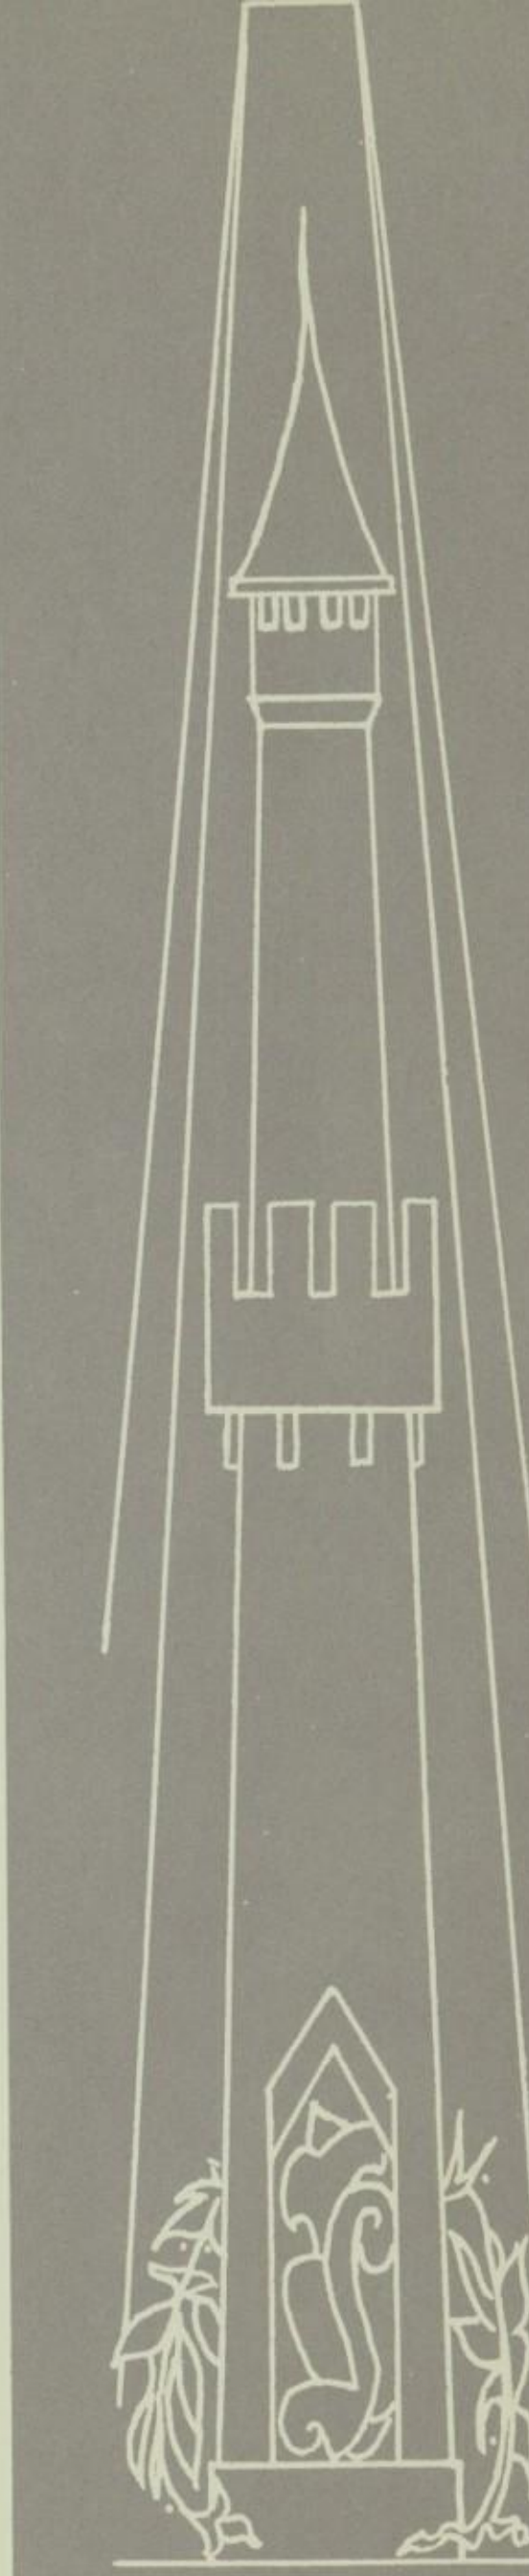
Tower of David...

...Our Lady and Our Life



Athletics

The tower symbolizes Mary as an impregnable source of protection against the powers of hell. Ancient cities were surrounded by walls into which towers were built for vantage points. The tower of David was the strongest tower in the wall of Jerusalem. As both spiritual and physical strength are objectives in our sports program, we must turn to the Tower of David for guidance.

Pre-Season Games

With five lettermen from last year's squad returning and seven B team members being moved up, the Gremlin varsity shaped into cup winners.

St. Francis opened pre-season with three straight wins to take the third annual St. Joseph's cage tournament for the second year in a row.

The second game brought defeat at the hands of St. Joe's. At Central City, the Gremlins won the first annual Gilpin County tourney in two games.

Aurora outscored the Gremlins in all four quarters, leaving a 5-2 pre-season record.

Parochial League Season

St. Francis met the first six league games successfully, only to be defeated in the seventh by Regis.

The second round proved to be more of a battle. Cathedral trailed S.F. only one point at half but fell back in the third quarter after Coach Strohauer's half-time strategy was executed.

Action with Mullen, the State champs, was nip and tuck the first round until it was broken up in the last quarter.

The Cardinals from Annunciation found the Gremlins' height too much to overcome. A last minute blast against the reserves in the second round had to be smothered by the starters.

Holy Family, led by Dick Haggerty, crowded the Gremlins throughout the second game with the outcome uncertain until the final minute.

Starting slow again, St. Francis trailed the lower-bracket Mount Carmel, who hit 6 for 7 from the field the first frame. The tide changed and victory number 15 was marked in the Gremlin books.

The St. Francis' reserves once more played as the team clobbered St. Joseph's the first round. The second round proved more of a defensive game and saw the Gremlin zone outshine the Bulldogs to take the win.

The big test came in the form of the Regis Raiders. After a 30-point defeat the first round, S.F. came back powerfully, battling to a 19-19 half-time tie. The third quarter made the difference and the Gremlins' defense held the powerful Raider offense to their lowest score of the season. This ended the league play with St. Francis and Regis co-champions.

State Tournament

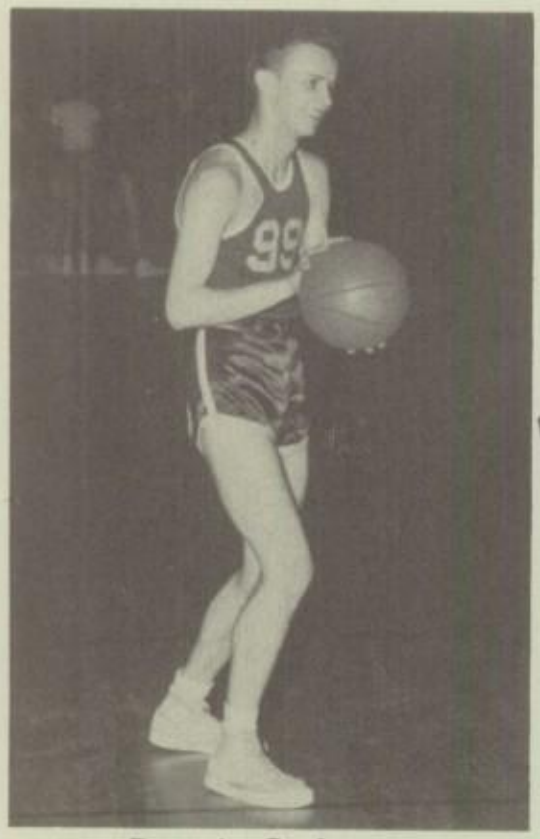
The Southsiders entered the State Tournament as favorites along with Regis and the Abbey, from Canon City. All three were dropped—St. Francis the first night, Regis the second, and the Abbey in the finals.

The Gremlins trailed St. Mary's of Colorado Springs, 12-8 at the quarter, beginning to hit the lead at the half by 2. The lead increased to 34-29 at the end of the third quarter. The co-champs downfall came after Andy Dickson and Ron McCarty fouled out. The Pirates then could not be stopped as they dropped the Gremlins into the consolation bracket.

The second game of the tourney brought St. Francis against Holy Family for the fourth time this year. S.F.'s fourth win came after the slow starting five gained their poise in the second quarter and continued it the rest of the game.

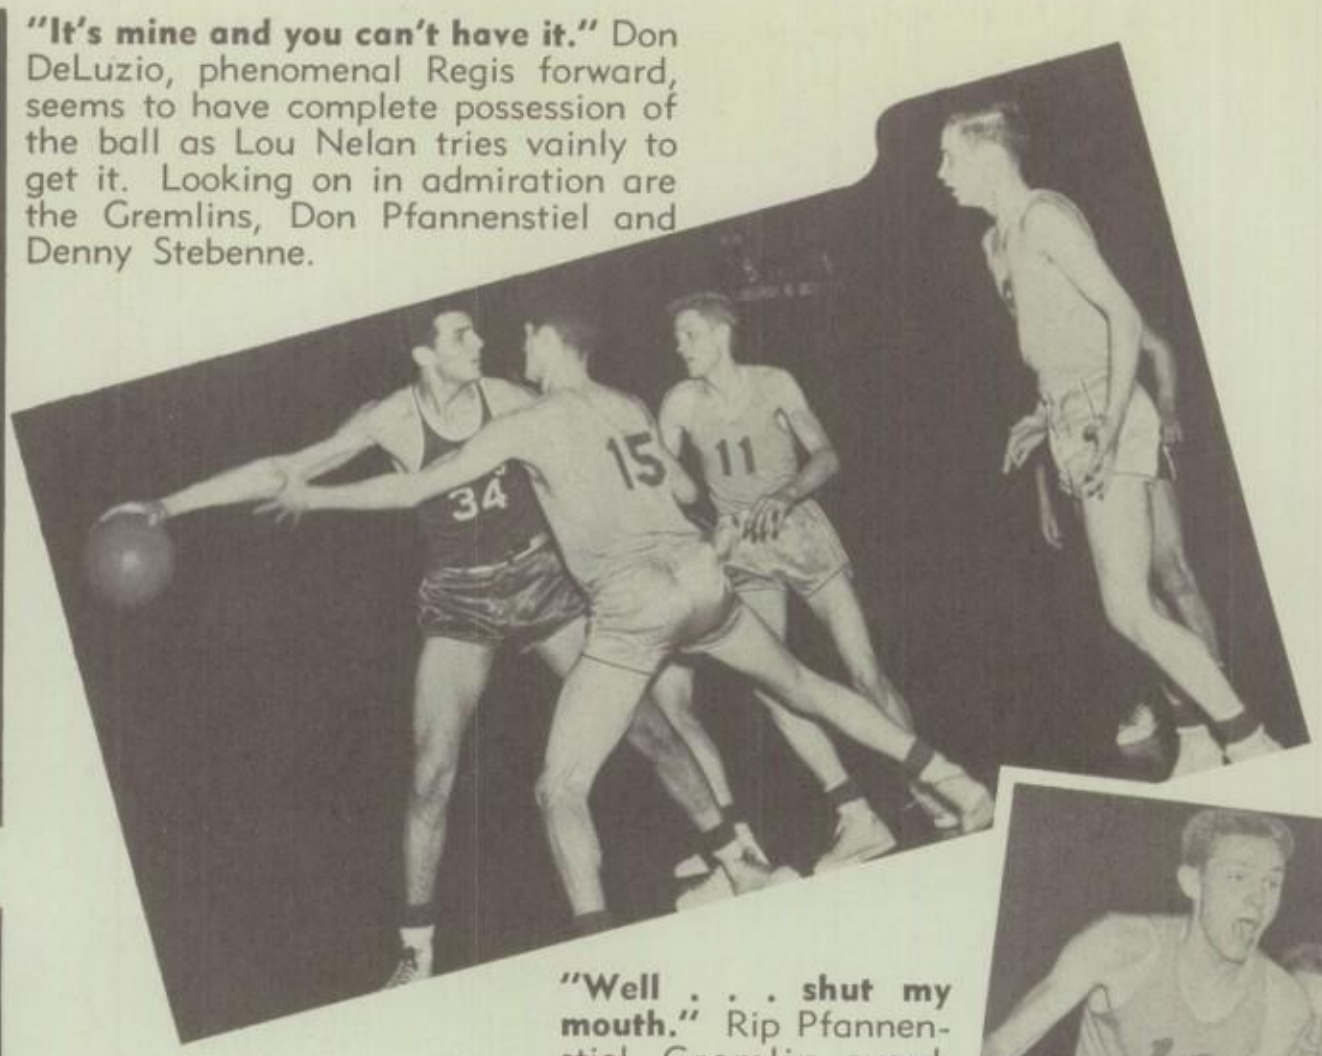
The final game of the season found St. Francis battling Holy Trinity of Trinidad for the consolation bracket championship. The outcome was evident after minutes of play. The Gremlins lead 18-6 at the end of the first quarter and 40-12 at half.

The season completed, a backward glance shows that St. Francis took the two pre-season tournaments, were co-champs in the Parochial league, and State consolation champs. They had a season record of 20-42, scored 1236 points, were first in the league's defense and second in the offensive standing.



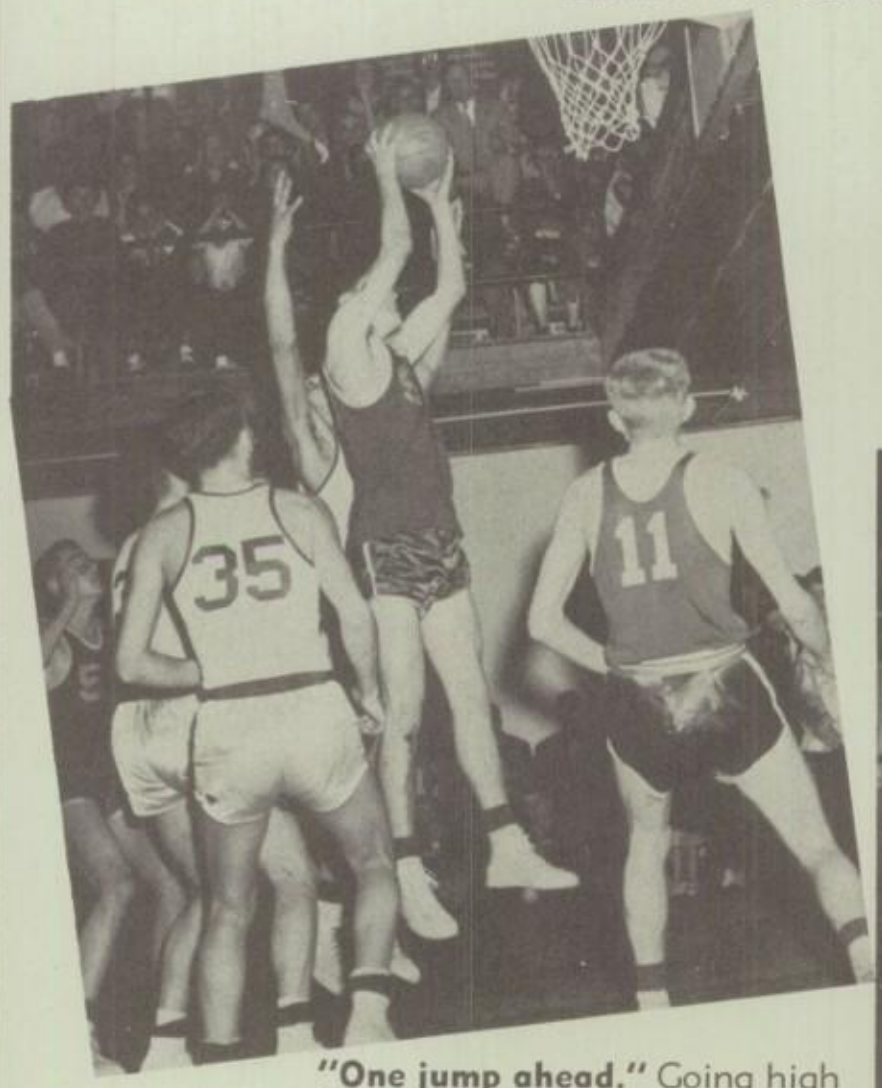
Dennis Stebenne

"It's mine and you can't have it." Don DeLuzio, phenomenal Regis forward, seems to have complete possession of the ball as Lou Nelan tries vainly to get it. Looking on in admiration are the Gremlins, Don Pfannenstiel and Denny Stebenne.

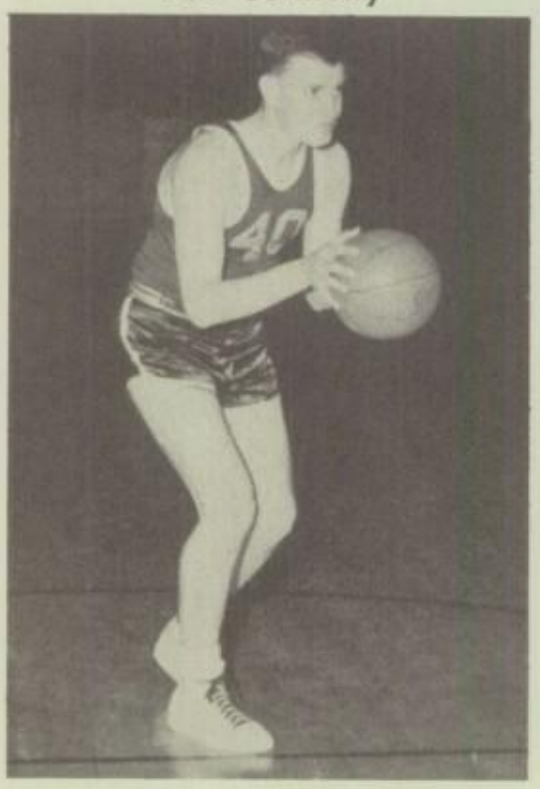


Norm Silva

"Well . . . shut my mouth." Rip Pfannenstiel, Gremlin guard, looks surprised as he comes off with a mighty rebound. Unable to stop him is Mt. Carmel's Joe Salvucci.

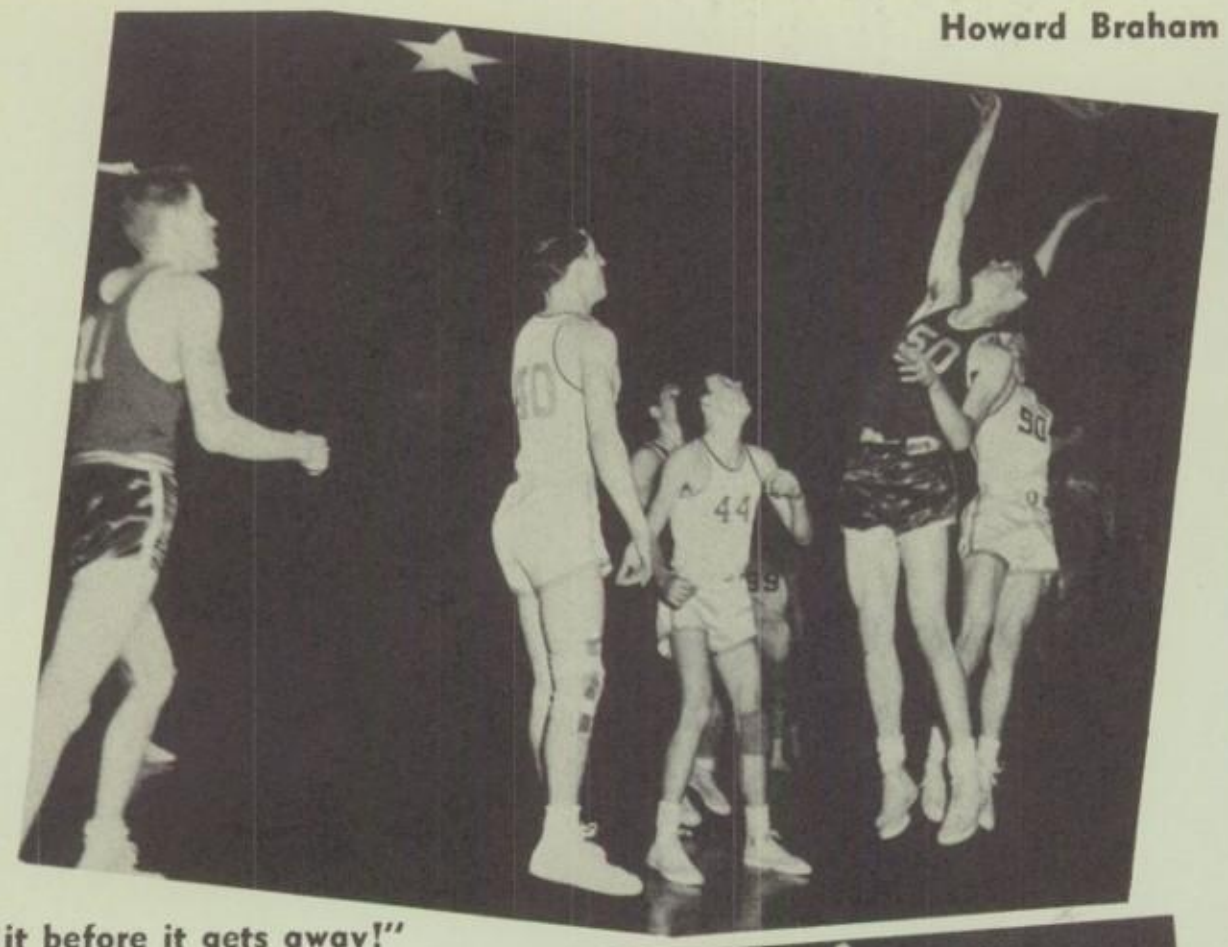


Bob Connelly



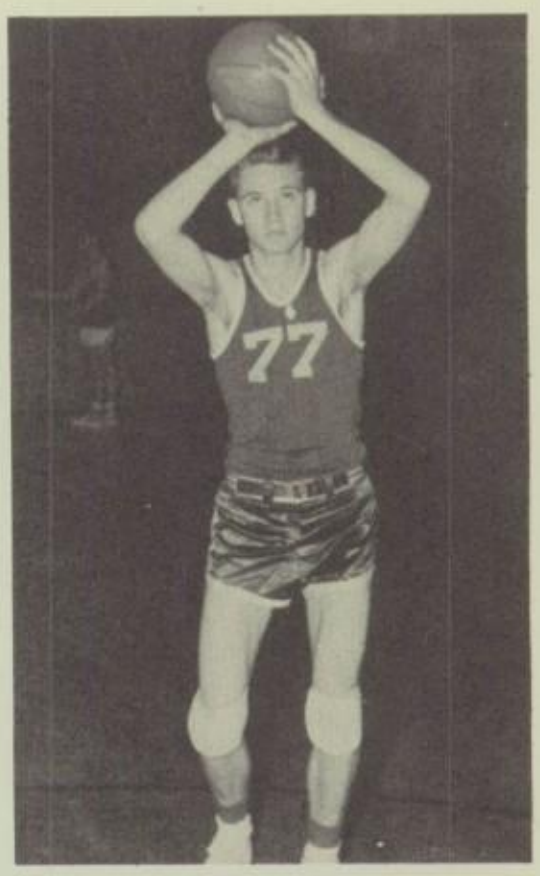
"One jump ahead." Going high for a rebound is Lou Nelan of St. Francis, while Frank Zook, Mike Christopher, John Bell, Don DeLuzio, and Don Pfannenstiel watch in amazement.

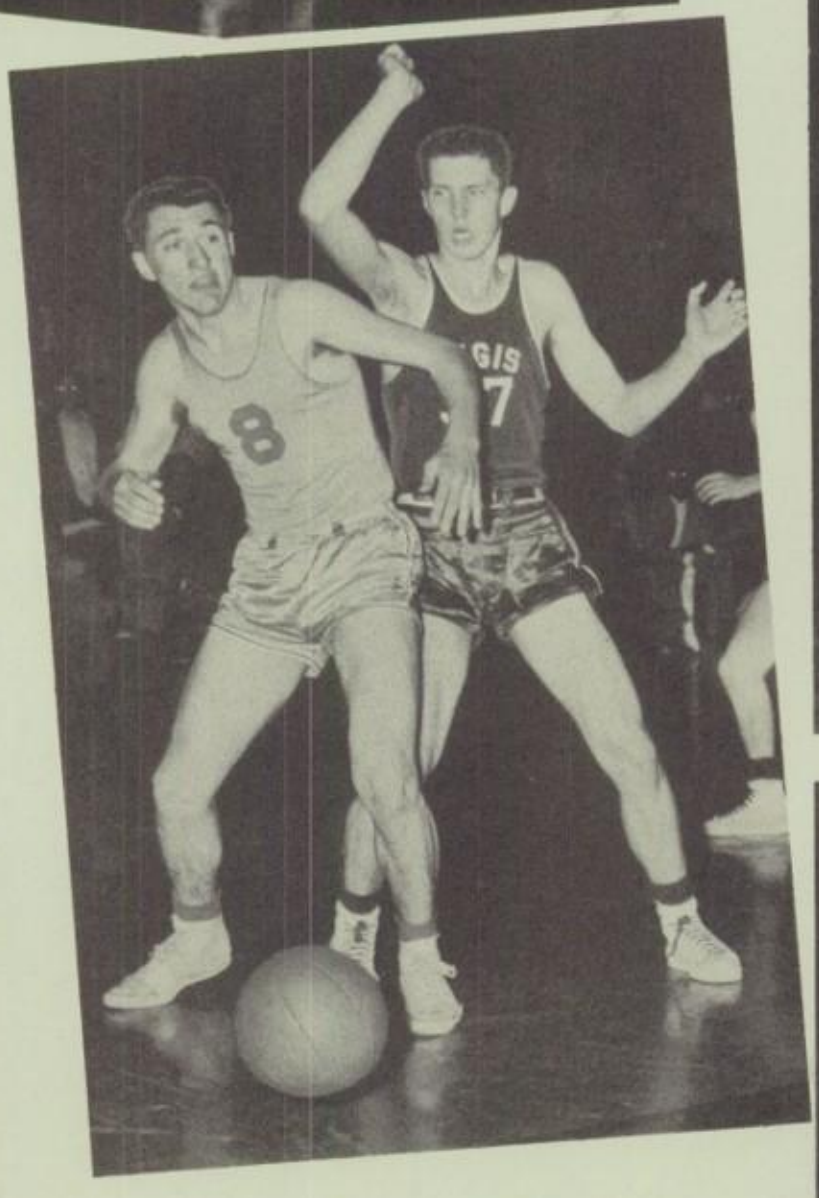
Joe Ryan



"Grab it before it gets away!" Lou Nelan, stellar star for the Gremlins, goes high for a layup in the Holy Family tilt, while the Tigers' Carlo Polniak is unable to stop his efforts. Others in the pictures are Don Pfannenstiel of the Gremlins, and Dick Haggarty and Dennis Filkowoki of the Tigers.

Howard Braham





"I'm gonna hit you, Pribila!" They just don't care about the ball as Lou Pribila of St. Francis and Mike Christopher of Regis look bored at the whole idea. The Gremlins went on to win a tie for the city championship with a 53-43 victory.

Lou Pribila

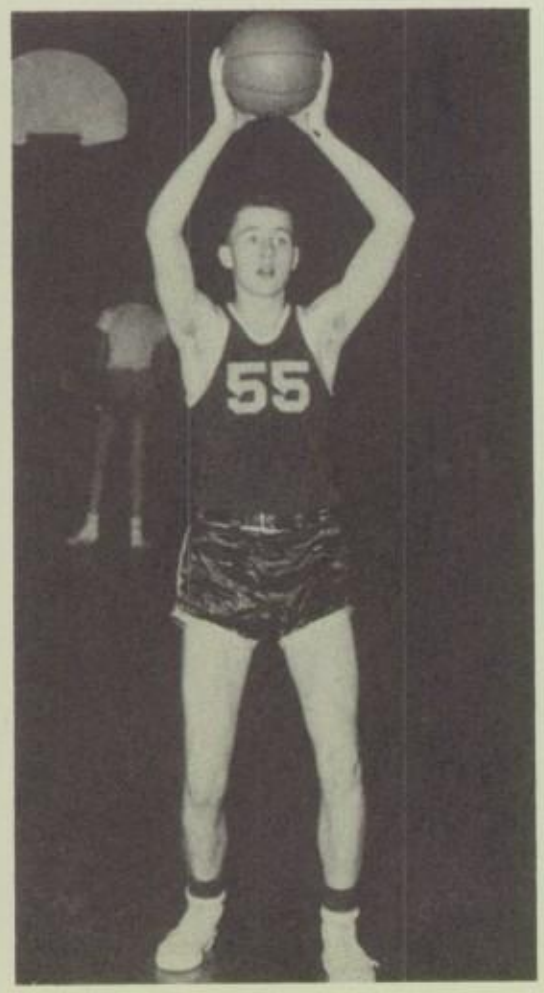
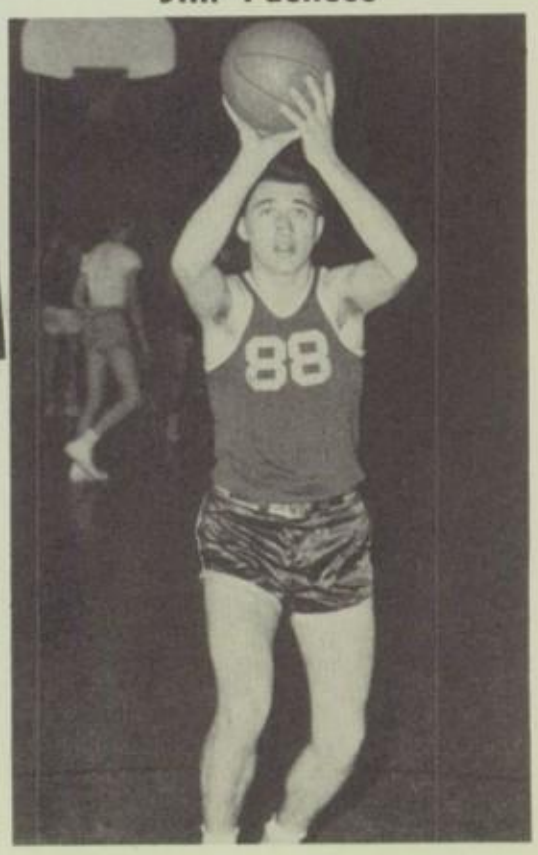
Frank Zook





"Hit it, Bob—it knocked me down!" This wild scramble resulted in a jump fall between Mullen's Ken Razmarick and the Gremlin's Bob Connelly. Looking on unable to help are John Yedo and Pete Gannon.

"Hands off, men—this one's mine!" Watching John Bell of Regis come off with a rebound are Don Pfannenstiel and Frank Zook of the Gremlins, Don DeLuzio and Pat Rieley of the Raiders, and Lou Nelan of S.F.

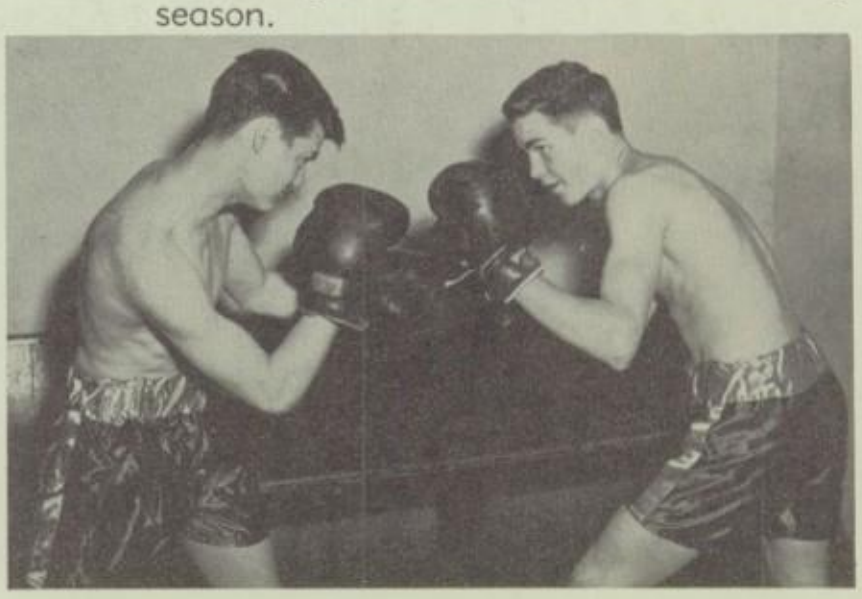
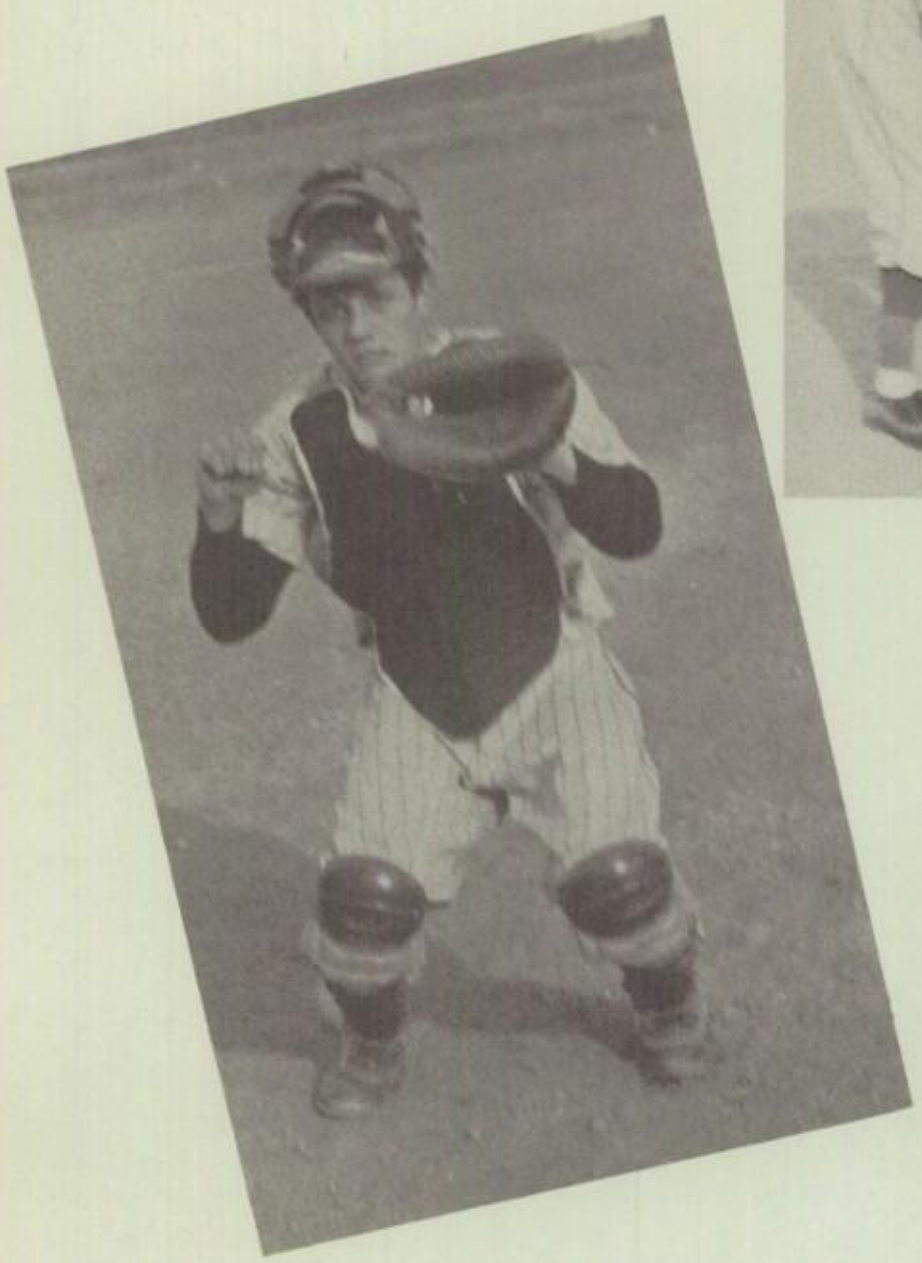
Sparring partners boxing up a storm are Tom Freeman and James Caragher.

Boxing Team

"Mommy, he's goin' to hit me!" seems to say Ronny Bahl, right, as he and Kevin Traynor get in condition for the boxing season.





Andy Dickson racks up another stolen base. Denny Stebenne, shortstop, seems to get a big kick out of the whole thing, but no ball.

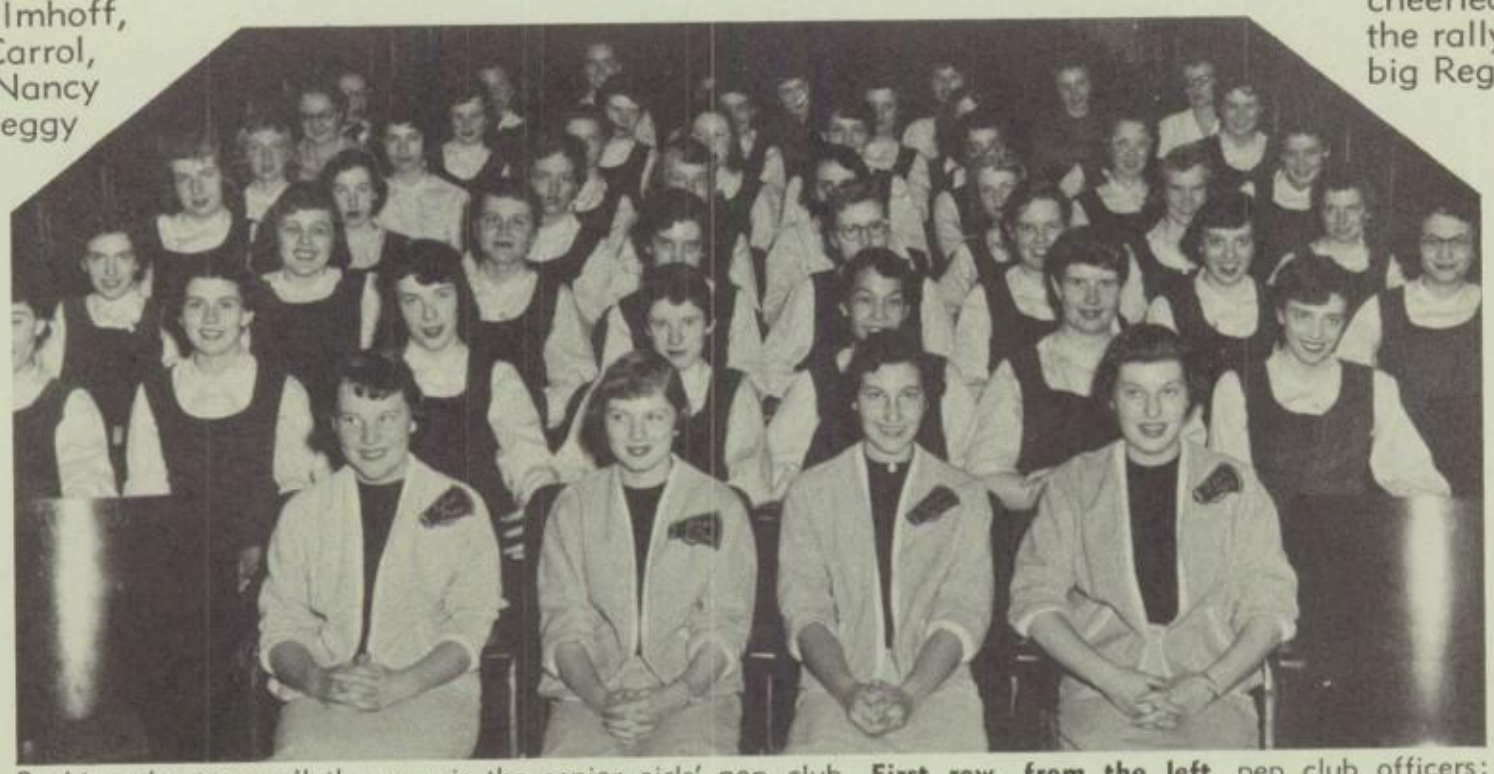
"One, two, three, four," chant cheerleaders, Margaret Hilbert, Fran Imhoff, Mary Ellen Carrol, Carol Weir, Nancy Kiehm and Peggy Guerin.

"Come on Gremlins, let's go," urge the cheerleaders at the rally before the big Regis game.



Backing the team all the way is the senior girls' pep club. First row, from the left, pep club officers: Carol Springer, president; Frances Mooney, vice president; Nancy Werthman, treasurer; Nancy Sorrels, secretary. Second row: Sheila Polniak, Jeanne Williams, Donna McKie, Pat Mittelstadt, Josella Lubeck, Joan Kottenstette, Diana MacGruder. Third row: Bernice Morgan, Nancy Weber, Anita Lynch, Claudette Kreiling, Dorothy Lucerne, Jackie Ling, Carol Kadell, Phyllis Sticksel. Fourth row: Marguerite McPhee, Joan McCarthy, Lois Mitchell, Donna McNamara, Renee McLaughlin, Rita Mooney, Lola Fultz, Amy Hudson. Fifth row: Bonnie Montreal, Mary Kay Nelan, Pat Schmitz, Pat Settle, Barbara Cabela, Nora Jacquez. Sixth row: Barbara Axtell, Peggy Fitzpatrick, Catherine TenBarge, Geneva Pelzel, Virginia Whitney, Cathy Smith, Mary Ann Urquhart, Rosemary DeMers, Carolyn Wathen. Seventh row: Virginia Becker, Pat Otis, Dolores Jones, Margaret Ramos, Alice Breese, Neva Kerkman, Vera Jacquez, Agnes Zehna. . . . .

"They can do it!"— and we know they can.

Dear Alice -

I'm sorry I couldn't write you this week my favorite ink but I ran out!

I want you to know that I'll really miss you after school gets out. I hope we'll get to see each other after graduation but somehow things or rather the atmosphere won't be the same - oh, heck - you know what I mean, don't you?

Please don't forget the times we've had together. I really had fun with you this past year and ½ and I'll never forget you (or Chester!) even though I never met him!

I won't try to start naming the things we've done because I'd never get it all on one page. So I guess I'd better sign off — otherwise I'll get so involved I'll never get finished. I wish this year's end hadn't come so quickly -

Please remember me -

Love you always

Alice:
Here's to a real great gal, you were a doll of a flag-bearer.
Good Luck always.
